

EMPLOYER or BUSINESS RELATIONSHIPS

6. EMPLOYER RELATIONSHIPS

Generally, you must complete Schedules 1, 2, and 3 of Part B, as fully explained in the instructions, if you, your spouse, or minor child had an arrangement or engaged in a transaction with, or held an interest in, or received income or other payment from (including any reimbursed expenses), or made loans to or received loans from, an employer or a labor relations consultant to an employer that meets any of the following conditions:

- An employer whose employees your labor organization represents or is actively seeking to represent; or
- An employer in competition with an employer whose employees your labor organization represents or is actively seeking to represent; or
- An employer that is a trust in which your labor organization is interested as defined in section 3(l) of the LMRDA; or
- An employer that is a non-profit organization that receives or is actively and directly soliciting (other than by mass mail, telephone bank, or mass media) money, donations or contributions from your labor organization; or
- An employer that is a labor organization that (1) has employees your union represents or is actively seeking to represent, (2) has employees in the same occupation as those represented by your union; (3) claims jurisdiction over work that is also claimed by your union; (4) is a party to or will be affected by any proceeding in which you have voting authority or other ability to influence the outcome of the proceeding; or (5) has made a payment to you for the purpose of influencing the outcome of an internal union election; or
- An employer that has made a payment to you for any of the following purposes: (1) not to organize employees; (2) to influence employees in any way with respect to their rights to organize; (3) to take any action with respect to the status of employees or others as members of a labor organization; (4) to take any action with respect to bargaining or dealing with employers whose employees your organization represents or is actively seeking to represent; or (5) to influence the outcome of an internal union election; or
- An employer whose interests are in actual or potential conflict with the interests of your labor organization or your duties to your labor organization.

Before proceeding, review Part II of the instructions (pages 1-9) to determine if any reporting exceptions apply to your situation. If the above conditions exist and none of the exceptions apply, then you must complete a separate Part B for each employer or labor relations consultant to an employer.
