U.S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE ESTABLISHES NEW ON-LINE SERVICE: LSA (LIST OF CFR SECTIONS AFFECTED)

At the request of the Office of the Federal Register, National Archives and Records Administration, GPO developed a comprehensive online service that makes the publication LSA (List of CFR Sections Affected) and related information, available online via GPO Access.

The service was made accessible October 16, 1998. Data can be accessed by pointing your WWW browser to:

<<http://www.gpo.gov/nara/index.html>>

The LSA is a monthly publication designed to lead users of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) to amendatory actions published in the Federal Register (FR).

The online LSA service includes the capability to search or browse each monthly publication (1997-1998) and download documents in either ASCII or PDF (Adobe's Portable Document Format). It also provides access to CFR amendatory information published each day in the Federal Register.

Initially (until automated methods of inserting hypertext links are developed), the user can "copy-and-paste" FR page citations into an HTML page:

<<http://www.access.gpo.gov/nara/lisa/retrfrpg.html>>

This feature provides access to the PDF files of the amendatory text appearing in the FR. The service is designed to enable users to gain easy access to CFR amendatory actions that are made current on a daily basis. It will also retain historical data to enable users to ascertain what the amendatory text is, and when it became effective.

The following are features of the online LSA Service and the URLs that provide access to them:
