PUBLIC PAPERS OF PRESIDENT FORD OFFERED BY GPO

Official documents of the 38th U.S. President available to the public

WASHINGTON—As the Nation mourns the passing of the late President Gerald R. Ford, the U.S. Government Printing Office is saluting his public service by highlighting the availability of his Public Papers. The documents, published by the National Archives and Records Administration, contain Ford's public messages, speeches, and statements. They can be accessed free of charge in a local Federal Depository Library. For a list of Federal Depository Libraries, click on <http://www.gpoaccess.gov/libraries.html>.

When Ford took the oath of office on August 9, 1974, he declared, "I assume the Presidency under extraordinary circumstances.... This is an hour of history that troubles our minds and hurts our hearts." It was indeed an unprecedented time in American history. Ford had been the first Vice President chosen under the terms of the Twenty-fifth Amendment and, in the aftermath of the Watergate scandal, was succeeding the first President ever to resign.

Selected volumes of President Ford's Public Papers are available for purchase just a click away at the U.S. Government Printing Office's online bookstore at <http://bookstore.gpo.gov>.
