HUNDREDS OF GPO EMPLOYEES TO TAKE PART IN FEDERAL FITNESS DAY

MEDIA ADVISORY

WHO: Hundreds of United States Government Printing Office (GPO) employees.

WHAT: Acting Public Printer William H. Turri and GPO employees will form teams to promote better health and fitness on Federal Fitness Day. Various teams will compete in running and walking events (2-mile run, 1-mile run, 2-mile walk, 1-mile competitive walk and relays). The Federal Government and GPO celebrate this day each year due to the positive contributions physical fitness has not only on workforce productivity and organizational effectiveness, but also for the health and well-being of Federal employees.

WHEN: Wednesday, May 16, 2007
11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Rain or Shine

WHERE: Gonzaga College High School Athletic Field
Enter from H Street, NW
(Across from GPO on the H Street side of the building. GPO is located at the intersection of H and North Capitol Streets, NW)

ABOUT GPO: The GPO is the Federal Government's primary centralized resource for gathering, cataloging, producing, providing, authenticating, and preserving published U.S. Government information in all its forms. GPO is responsible for the production and distribution of information products and services for all three Branches of the Federal Government. In addition to publication sales, GPO makes government information available at no cost to the public through GPO Access (www.gpoaccess.gov), and through partnerships with more than 1,250 libraries nationwide participating in the Federal Depository Library Program.
