Section 2. Probation Period - Any employee hired shall be on a probationary status and shall have no seniority until he/she has worked for six (6) months. As such, new hire probationary employees shall not have the right to transfer to another position until they have completed their initial six (6) month probationary period. Probationary employees may be discharged with or without cause, and for such discharge, shall not have recourse to the grievance and other procedures of this Memorandum; however, the informal meetings on discharges currently in practice may continue.

Upon completion of the probationary period, the employee shall have seniority from the date of his or her last hire. Except for typographical errors, a continuous service date shall be conclusively presumed to be correct after it has been posted three (3) consecutive times without a grievance.

When applicants meet the minimum requirements established by the classified system, seniority shall be the controlling factor when, in the reasonable judgment of the appointing authority, the job related qualifications are equal.

(b) Order of Consideration - When the City fills a vacancy, the appointing authority shall consider applicants in the following groups giving first consideration to employees in each group in the order listed with seniority considered within each group:

1. Employees in the same job in the same location requesting a change in shift (subject to the City's right to retain a reasonable balance of skills and experience on each shift).

(g) Performance of Work Without Training - Employees bumping or moving within the same classification or downward must be able to perform the available work immediately and without training, except for routine orientation that may be required.

(e) It is the intention of the parties to this Memorandum that, within the guidelines set down by the grants or programs, the programs described in (a) above are not otherwise to be used or administered in such a way as to deny promotional opportunities to regular employees.

(f) In the application of the general layoff procedures established by this Memorandum the employees described in subsection (a) above shall be considered temporary employees to the extent permitted by the federal grant and regulations.

(g) No job will be filled under the programs set forth in (a) above in other than an entry level position in each job category until applicable personnel procedures and the applicable provisions of this Memorandum have been complied with. (F. R. Vol. 39, No. 108, 6/4/74 sections 96, 23 (b) (9) ).
