

think blue

clean water starts with you!

Storm Water Protection in Maine

What can I do?

Kid's Pages

Educator's Pages

Citizen's Pages

Links to other places:

Casco Bay Estuary Project

Center for Watershed Protection

Environmental Protection Agency

Maine Healthy Beaches

Maine Stream Team \(Maine DEP\)

Watershed Management \(Maine DEP\)

Wells Reserve

Feedback Survey

We'd like to know what you think!

- In general, did you understand the materials presented in this website?
Yes    No
- Did the website provide you with new information about stormwater pollution?
Yes    No
- Which web pages did you find were most useful? (check all that apply)
Kids    Educators
Citizens    An off-site link
- As a result of the information you obtained, are you thinking of doing anything differently to protect Maine's lakes, rivers, and streams?
Yes    No    Maybe
- After viewing this website, are you ready to change any behaviors related to the topics listed below? (check all that apply)
Littering    Lawn & Garden
Chemical Usage & Storage    Pet Waste
Gas & Oil Spills    Vehicle Maintenance
Septic Systems
Soil Erosion
- Are you interested in participating in any of the following? (check all that apply)
Beach, Stream or Litter Clean-Up    Storm Drain Stenciling
Neighborhood Water Watch Program    Water Monitoring Program
Stream Team    Educating Children

- What keywords would you type into an internet search engine to find this website?

- Comments/Suggestions/Changes:

- Age:

13-19    20-34    35-55    over 55

- Education (if you are over 20):

Some College    No College

- Sex:

Female    Male

home

contact

feature article

sponsors

my city/town