

The North Appalachian Experimental Watershed, the Ohio Division of Forestry,
Coshocton SWCD, Ohio Farm Bureau, and the Small Farm Institute Present:

2008 Forestry Classes

9:00 AM to 3:00 PM at the Experiment Station at 28850 SR 621 in Coshocton County, Rain or Shine, Come Dressed for the Outdoors. John Kehn, ODNR Service Forester for Coshocton, Holmes, Tuscarawas, and Wayne Counties will be the instructor for the sessions.

Introduction to Forestry:

Topics to be covered include Tree ID, Property Tax Laws, Boundary Marking,
Road and Trail Construction, Vine Control, Habitat Management, Management
Plans, etc...

Class Dates: June 27th
 September 26th
 December 12th

Timber Stand Improvement:

Topics to be covered include making thinning decisions in the woodland, vine control, invasive species control, Chainsaw safety and Directional Felling techniques.

Class Dates: May 30th
 September 5th,
 November 21st

Timber Marketing: Topics include IF, WHEN, and HOW to sell timber.
This session includes 2 to 3 hours indoors and the afternoon selecting trees to harvest.

Class Dates: August 8th
 October 24th

* Registration is limited to 40 participants per session. The required prepayment fee is $5.00 per participant per session (for lunch). Make checks payable to the Coshocton County Farm Bureau and mail checks to the station address below. Lunch will be provided courtesy of the Farm Bureau.

To Register Contact: Cara Baumer (North Appalachian Experimental Watershed)

Phone: 740-545-6349

Mail: USDA-ARS / Forestry Classes
 North Appalachian Experimental Watershed
 Box 488
 Coshocton, Ohio 43812

From the north travel south on SR 83 to Baltic to SR 651 to New Bedford then south on SR 643 to County Road 190 east. Stay on CR 190. It turns south and becomes SR 621 at the Experiment Station. There is a water tower marking the station.

