When Should I Use Form I-777?

During the two-year period that ended July 1, 1990, USCIS issued original Northern Mariana Identification Cards to individuals who acquired U.S. citizenship through the Covenant to Establish a Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands in Political Union with the United States (Public Law 94-241). These cards remain valid as evidence of U.S. citizenship. Although USCIS no longer issues these cards, a citizen to whom a card was previously issued may use this application to request replacement of a card that was lost, stolen, or damaged.
