

3.11-14 Contractor Responsibility for Receipt of Shipment (February 2003)

The Contractor shall diligently count and examine all goods tendered for shipment, receipt for them, and make appropriate written exception for any goods not in apparent good order.

(End of clause)

PRESCRIPTION

Insert the following clause in solicitations and contracts for transportation or transportation-related services when the contractor is responsible for loading and unloading shipments.