This message is being sent to you on behalf of EPA and DOE's ENERGY STAR® program.

Dear ENERGY STAR Imaging Equipment Stakeholder:

Attached for your review, please find the ENERGY STAR Imaging Equipment Draft 1 (Version 1.0) Specification Stakeholder Comment Response Summary. This summary attempts to capture all stakeholder comments and requests related to the Draft 1 specification and share EPA's decisions related to these matters. There are cases where EPA continues to assess data or consider stakeholder requests and thus decisions on these matters will be relayed in the Draft 2 specification, which is scheduled for release in December. EPA will also share all data that has been received to date in December upon the release of this next draft.

Please feel free to contact Erin Trager, ICF Consulting, at etrager@icfconsulting.com or Katharine Osdoba, EPA, at osdoba.katharine@epa.gov with any questions regarding the attached or the Draft 1 Imaging Equipment specification more generally. For additional information regarding the Draft specification, including its development, feedback received to date, or planned next steps, please visit www.energystar.gov/productdevelopment.

EPA very much thanks all stakeholders for relaying your feedback on the Draft 1 specification and looks forward to working with you to finalize this specification.
