

Alyssa Rosemartin

Organization Location	Experience	Dates
Center for the Study of Deserts and Oceans Sonora, Mexico & Tucson, Arizona	Research Fellow Conducted research on endangered least terns in Sonoran wetlands. Assisted in wetland conservation initiatives, coordinated website design and raised money for research and conservation. Fluent in spoken and written Spanish.	October 2006 – present
Center for the Study of Deserts and Oceans Sonora, Mexico	Field Education Intern Coordinated education programs at field station. Assisted in conservation, local education and research projects.	August 2005 – July 2006
Brooklyn Center for the Urban Environment Brooklyn, New York	Assistant Coordinator of Community Literacy Developed a bilingual family literacy after-school program.	March 2004 – June 2005
Peace Corps Nicaragua	Environment Promoter Coordinated the efforts of local and international organizations for environmental projects. Developed and implemented education programs in four rural primary schools. Facilitated grant-writing and management process for a school to build a public library. Community was awarded 2,500 dollars by USAid for the project.	2000 – 2002
Rocky Mountain Bird Observatory Brighton, CO	Environmental Educator Assisted with summer ornithology camp and international migratory bird education programs. Banded birds and conducted point counts.	Summers 1996 and 1997

Institution Location	Education	Dates
University of Arizona Tucson, AZ	MS in Wildlife Conservation and Management Peace Corps Fellow and Graduate Assistant	2006 – 2008
Smith College Northampton, MA	BA in Latin American Literature with Environmental Science Minor. Elected to Sigma Xi for research on land management and bird diversity in Costa Rica.	1996 – 2000
Pratt Institute Brooklyn, NY	Certificate in Leadership Development and Community Change.	Spring 2004