It is agreed that neither the Union nor the Association shall be subject to any liability for damages because of the action of any individual Employer or any member of the Union.

(b) Should any dispute or grievance arise under any of the terms of this Agreement, the Employer or his representative and the Council's representative shall meet promptly to resolve the dispute. If the parties do not succeed in resolving such dispute or grievance, notice shall be given promptly to the Association and to the Council Executive Secretary-Treasurer. Upon receipt of such notice, the Association and the Council Executive Secretary-Treasurer shall each immediately designate a representative and notify the other party of the representative's name and address. The representatives appointed shall contact each other, and make arrangements for a meeting to be held within two days.

The Council or the Association, whichever decides that there shall be further action on the dispute, shall notify the other in writing by certified mail of its intention to submit the dispute to arbitration and shall, simultaneously, file with the American Arbitration Association a written demand for arbitration of said dispute, whereupon an arbitrator shall be appointed in accordance with the then prevailing rules of the Labor Arbitration Tribunal of said American Arbitration Association, except that if the parties hereto fail to agree upon any persons named in the first list submitted by the Association to the parties, or if those named in said list decline or are unable to act, and if for any reason the first appointment cannot be made from such

In no event shall such wages or fringe benefit contributions be paid to those employees who were not employed at the time of such refusal to render further service. Such persuasion or direction by the Council to the employees, and the cessation of work, or the refusal to accept employment, by the employees shall not be deemed to be a violation of section (a) of this Article 14.

12. All employees, upon hire, shall receive instruction in, and a copy of the policies and rules applicable to their employment and work assignments prior to access to the project.
