5(e), 5(f), or 6(a) of the Act, the submitter may manufacture or import the microorganism even if the submitter has not received notice of expiration.

(3) Early notification that EPA has completed its review does not permit commencement of manufacture or import prior to the expiration of the 90-day MCAN review period.

(c) No person submitting a MCAN in response to the requirements of this subpart may manufacture, import, or process a microorganism subject to this subpart until the review period, including all extensions and suspensions, has expired.

§ 725.190 Notice of commencement of manufacture or import.

- (a) Applicability. Any person who commences the manufacture or import of a new microorganism for nonexempt, commercial purposes for which that person previously submitted a section 5(a) notice under this part must submit a notice of commencement (NOC) of manufacture or import.
- (b) When to report. (1) If manufacture or import for nonexempt, commercial purposes begins on or after May 27, 1997, the submitter must submit the NOC to EPA no later than 30 calendar days after the first day of such manufacture or import.
- (2) If manufacture or import for non-exempt, commercial purposes began or will begin before May 27, 1997, the submitter must submit the NOC by May 27, 1997.
- (3) Submission of an NOC prior to the commencement of manufacture or import is a violation of section 15 of the Act.
- (c) Information to be reported. The NOC must contain the following information: Specific microorganism identity, MCAN number, and the date when manufacture or import commences. If the person claimed microorganism identity confidential in the MCAN, and wants the identity to be listed on the confidential Inventory, the claim must be reasserted and resubstantiated in accordance with §725.85(b). Otherwise, EPA will list the specific microorganism identity on the public Inventory.
- (d) Where to submit. NOCs should be submitted to the address listed in §725.25(c).

Subpart E—Exemptions for Research and Development Activities

§725.200 Scope and purpose.

- (a) This subpart describes exemptions from the reporting requirements under subpart D of this part for research and development activities involving microorganisms.
- (b) In lieu of complying with subpart D of this part, persons described in §725.205 may submit a TSCA Experimental Release Application (TERA) for research and development activities involving microorganisms or otherwise comply with this subpart.
- (c) Exemptions from part 725 are provided at §§ 725.232, 725.234, and 725.238.
- (d) Submission requirements specific for TERAs are described at §725.250.
- (e) Data requirements for TERAs are set forth in §§ 725.255 and 725.260.
- (f) EPA review procedures specific for TERAs are set forth in §§ 725.270 and 725.288.
- (g) Subparts A through C of this part apply to any submission under this subpart.

§725.205 Persons who may report under this subpart.

- (a) Commercial research and development activities involving new microorganisms or significant new uses of microorganisms are subject to reporting under this part unless they qualify for an exemption under this part.
- (b) Commercial purposes for research and development means that the activities are conducted with the purpose of obtaining an immediate or eventual commercial advantage for the researcher and would include:
- (1) All research and development activities which are funded directly, in whole or in part, by a commercial entity regardless of who is actually conducting the research. Indications that the research and development activities are funded directly, in whole or in part, may include, but are not limited to:
- (i) Situations in which a commercial entity contracts directly with a university or researcher; or
- (ii) Situations in which a commercial entity gives a conditional grant where the commercial entity holds patent
