The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission today instituted a public administrative proceedings against three companies to determine whether the registration of each class of their securities should be revoked or suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months for failure to file required periodic reports or, in the case of Mother Lode Gold Mines Consolidated, filing non-compliant periodic reports (ticker symbols provided where available):

In the Matter of Baroque Corp. et al., Administrative Proceeding File No. 3-13077

- Baroque Corp.
- Mother Lode Gold Mines Consolidated (MLGM)
- Solvis Group, Inc. (SLVG)

In this Order, the Division of Enforcement (Division) alleges that Baroque Corp. and Solvis Group, Inc. are delinquent in their required periodic filings with the Commission. In this proceeding, instituted pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12(j), a hearing will be scheduled before an Administrative Law Judge. At the hearing, the judge will hear evidence from the Division and the respondents to determine whether the allegations of the Division contained in the Order, which the Division alleges constitute failures to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder, are true. The judge in the proceeding will then determine whether the registrations pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 of the securities of these respondents should be revoked or suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months. The Commission ordered that the Administrative Law Judge in this proceeding issue an initial decision not later than 120 days from the date of service of the order instituting proceedings.
