PROTECTIVE ORDER
AS TO THOMAS C. BRIDGE

On June 3, 2008, Thomas C. Bridge submitted personal financial information to the Commission in connection with his petition for review of an administrative law judge's initial decision and requested a protective order limiting disclosure of this information. 1/ Under Commission Rule 322, any party "may file a motion requesting a protective order to limit from disclosure to other parties or to the public documents or testimony that contain confidential information." 2/ "A motion for a protective order shall be granted only upon a finding that the harm resulting from disclosure would outweigh the benefits of disclosure." 3/ The Division of Enforcement did not oppose Bridge's request for a protective order.

2/ 17 C.F.R. § 201.322(a).

3/ 17 C.F.R. § 201.322(b).

The documents Bridge submitted contain sensitive information and, at this stage in the proceeding, we believe that the harm resulting from complete disclosure outweighs the benefits. 4/ However, because we have determined that disclosure of certain information included in the documents will be necessary to our consideration of this proceeding, we shall grant the requested protected order subject to certain limitations. 5/

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that:

1. Except as otherwise provided in this Order, the documents Bridge provided shall be disclosed only to the parties to this proceeding, their counsel, the Commission, any staff advising the Commission in its deliberative processes with respect to this proceeding and, in the event of an appeal of the Commission's determination, any staff acting for the Commission in connection with that appeal.
2. All persons who receive access to these documents or the information contained in these documents shall keep them confidential and, except as provided in this Order, shall not divulge the documents or information to any person.
3. No person to whom the documents or information covered by the Order is disclosed shall make any copies or otherwise use such documents or information, except in connection with this proceeding or any appeal thereof.
4. The Office of the Secretary shall place the documents in sealed envelopes or other sealed containers marked with the title of this action, identifying each document and marked "CONFIDENTIAL."
5. The requirements of sealing and confidentiality shall not apply to any reference to the existence of the documents or to citation of particular information contained therein in testimony, oral argument, briefs, opinions, or in any other similar use directly connected with this action or any appeal thereof.
