The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission today instituted a public administrative proceeding against seven companies to determine whether the registration of each class of their securities should be revoked, or suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months, for failure to file required periodic reports. The Commission instituted administrative proceeding against the following issuers:

- Bilogic, Inc.

In this proceeding, instituted pursuant to Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) Section 12(j), a hearing will be scheduled before an Administrative Law Judge. At the hearing, the judge will hear evidence from the Division and the respondents to determine whether the allegations of the Division contained in the Order, which the Division alleges constitute failures to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder, are true. The judge in the proceeding will then determine whether the registrations pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 of the securities of these respondents should be revoked, or in the alternative, suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months. The Commission ordered that the Administrative Law Judges in this proceeding issue an initial decision not later than 120 days from the date of service of the order instituting proceedings.
