CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

PERMANENT INJUNCTION AND ORDER APPOINTING PERMANENT RECEIVER ENTERED AGAINST ELMAS TRADING CORPORATION, OTHERS

The Los Angeles Regional Office announced that on June 24 Judge Edward C. Reed, Jr., U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada, Reno Division, entered, by consent, Orders: (1) permanently enjoining Elmas Trading Corporation, Republic Overseas Bank, Ltd. (ROBL), James L. Attarian and Donald D. Smith from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws, continuing the freeze of certain of the defendants' assets and prohibiting the dissipation of assets and records pertaining to the defendants' fraudulent sale of unregistered securities; and (2) appointing Richard G. Shaffer as the Permanent Receiver over Elmas and ROBL.

The complaint alleged, among other things, that since August 1982 the defendants had fraudulently offered and sold unregistered investment contracts in a commodities arbitrage trading program promising returns to investors of 36% to 41% per year and that returns to investors had been paid from other investors' funds. In his Preliminary Report, the Receiver set forth that the defendants raised over $72.6 million from 4,600 investors, that approximately $23.6 million was paid to salespersons and investors for commission payments and principal liquid assets of the defendants of approximately $17 million. (SEC v. Elmas Trading Corporation, et al., USDC DNV, Civ R No. 85-263 ECR). (LR-10820)

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST ALVIN PETROLEUM, INC., OTHERS

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on July 3 Judge Norgle of the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, entered Orders of Permanent Injunction against Alvin Petroleum, Inc. and Chester Hall from future violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. Simultaneously, Alvin and Hall, without admitting or denying the facts alleged, consented to the Orders.

The July 1 complaint alleges that from about February 1984 to about July 1984, Alvin, Hall, Alvin Broerman, David Swain, Robert Mitchell and Alexander Daniel "Sandy" Paker offered and sold unregistered securities in the form of partnership interests in oil and gas wells to hundreds of investors nationwide and raised several million dollars. The complaint further alleges that the defendants made material misrepresentations and omissions concerning, among other things, the history of sanctions entered against them by various state agencies and state and federal courts, the cost of the wells, the investment risks, the identity of the drilling company, the sales commissions and the misuse of investor proceeds. Additionally, the complaint alleges that Swain, Mitchell and Paker acted as unregistered securities brokers. (SEC v. Alvin Petroleum, et al., Civil Action No. 85C 06032, filed July 1, 1985). (LR-10824)
