RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

INVESTMENT ADVISER YEAR 2000 REPORTS

The Commission has issued a release proposing a new rule and form under the Investment Advisers Act to require reports on preparations for the Year 2000 computer problem. The proposed rule would require most investment advisers registered with the Commission to file a form, Form ADV-Y2K, regarding the preparations that advisers, and the registered investment companies they manage, have taken, and will take, to prepare for the Year 2000 problem. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, contact Carolyn-Gail Gilheany at (202) 942-0716. (Rel. IA-1769; IC-23476)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

IN THE MATTER OF BELL CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, INC., RONNIE BELL, THOMAS COMSODES AND MARK PALMER

On September 30, the Commission issued an order instituting public administrative and cease and desist proceedings (Order) against a registered investment adviser, Bell Capital Management, Inc. (Bell Capital), its President, Ronnie H. Bell, and two of its Vice Presidents, Thomas C. Comsudes, and Mark S. Palmer. The proceedings are to determine whether Bell Capital violated the antifraud and record-keeping provisions of the Investment Advisers Act and whether the individual respondents aided and abetted Bell Capital's violations of the antifraud provisions.

In its Order, the Commission alleged that the primary marketing tool used by Bell Capital, an advertising brochure, contained false and misleading information about Bell Capital's performance results. Specifically, the Commission alleges that the performance results contained in the brochure did not reflect the deduction of advisory and other fees and that Bell Capital, for some of the years listed, failed to disclose the effect of material market and economic conditions on those performance results. The Commission also alleged in the Order that Bell Capital's failed to prominently disclose that some of the performance results contained in its brochure were hypothetical and others were actual. The Order further alleged that Bell Capital did not have the documents necessary to support the performance figures contained in its advertising brochure.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations against Bell Capital, Ronnie H. Bell, Thomas C. Comsudes, and Mark S. Palmer (respondents) are true, and if so, what sanctions, if any, are appropriate in the public interest against the respondents. (Rel. IA-1768; File No. 3-9755)

THREE CHARGED IN VALLEY FORGE CAPITAL HOLDINGS, INC. OFFERING FRAUD

The Commission today announced that it has sued three Northern California residents for the fraudulent sale of $4.2 million in high-risk securities issued by Valley Forge Capital Holdings, Inc. (Valley Forge), formerly headquartered in San Francisco. Among those sued are Mamie Tang (Tang), of San Francisco. Also named are Tang's sister, Deborah Mello, of Sacramento; and Tang's friend, Victoria Gong, of San Francisco. The three are former senior officers and directors of Valley Forge.

The complaint alleges that between January 1994 and September 1996, Tang, Mello and Gong misused at least $838,000 (or 20%) of the $4.2 million in offering proceeds raised by Valley Forge, contrary to representations contained in offering materials provided to investors. These improper uses included payments to Tang and other entities controlled by her, as well as payments to Gong and others. After the fraud, Valley Forge was acquired by a new owner and is no longer operating under the name Valley Forge.

The complaint seeks an order compelling Tang, Mello and Gong to disgorge all monies misappropriated from Valley Forge and to pay civil monetary penalties. The complaint also seeks to enjoin the three from violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. In addition, the complaint seeks to bar Tang from serving in any capacity as an officer or director of a publicly-held corporation.

The complaint also seeks the return of offering proceeds from relief defendants, including certain Tang family members and a former Michigan-based brokerage firm controlled by Mamie Tang.

The Commission obtained an injunction against Tang in February 1995 for a prior offering fraud through Continental Capital Financial Group. In that action the Commission alleged that Tang and her partner, John Hickey, misappropriated $3.5 million from investors. In July 1997, Tang and Hickey were indicted for their conduct in connection with the sale of the Continental securities. The criminal case against them is pending. [SEC v. Mamie Tang, et al., USDC, D. Northern California, Civil Action No. CV98-3739] (LR-15912)

CIVIL ACTION ALLEGES FRAUD BY INTERCONTINENTAL RESOURCES, NA, INC. AND ITS OFFICERS

The Commission filed a civil action today to halt efforts by a purported conglomerate located in the Los Angeles area to obtain funds from investors who are offered "free" shares of stock and then solicited to make loans to the company. The company is Intercontinental Resources, NA, Inc. (IRC), which claims to be a mining, agriculture, timber, mineral processing and consulting company headquartered in Highland, California. Also named as defendants are IRC's president Thomas A. Rebenstorf, its president of African projects John C. Rebenstorf III, and its treasurer and acting secretary Bruce M. Rebenstorf. John Rebenstorf was enjoined by federal courts in 1976 and 1983 for violations of the antifraud and other provisions of the federal securities laws.

The Commission alleges that IRC and the Rebenstorfs misled investors with a litany of wildly exaggerated, inaccurate and incomplete statements concerning the company's assets and operations. For example, the Commission asserts that IRC and the Rebenstorfs informed investors that the Nigerian government owes the company $26.5 million pursuant to a contract for the construction of computerized communication equipment in Nigeria even after the American embassy in Nigeria and the London, U.K. police told IRC that the supposed arrangement was non-existent and fraudulent. According to the Commission, the defendants also falsely represented that IRC held an interest in a refinery and certain gold mining claims. The complaint further alleges that the defendants misrepresented the status of IRC's efforts to get listed on Nasdaq or another public market. The Commission also contends that IRC distributed false financial statements which inflated assets and revenues and understated liabilities.

The Commission seeks preliminary and permanent injunctions to prevent IRC and the Rebenstorfs from continuing to violate the antifraud provisions of the securities laws and from obtaining funds on the basis of fraudulent information. The Commission also seeks civil money penalties against the defendants. [SEC v. Intercontinental Resources, NA, Inc., et al., 98-7898CM, JGx, C.D. Cal.] (LR-15921; AAE Rel. 1084)
