NOTICE OF COMMISSION MEETINGS

CHANGES IN THE MEETING: CANCELLATION OF APRIL 27TH OPEN & CLOSED MEETINGS

The open meeting scheduled for 1:00 p.m., Friday, April 27, 1990 to hear oral argument in connection with Commission review of an administrative law judge's initial decision with respect to Arthur James Huff, and the closed meeting for post oral argument discussion scheduled to follow that open meeting meeting have been cancelled.

RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

REGULATION S ADOPTED; COMMENTS SOLICITED

The Commission today released Regulation S to clarify the extraterritorial application of the registration provisions of the Securities Act of 1933. Additionally, the Commission is soliciting comments regarding whether to extend the application of the Regulation to offers and sales of securities issued by registered mutual funds and unit investment trusts and, if so, the method by which to accomplish such extension. Comments should be submitted in triplicate on or before June 25, 1990 to Jonathan G. Katz, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549. Refer to File S7-7-90. All submissions will be available for public inspection at the Commission Public Reference Room. (Rel. 33-6863, 34-27942, IC-17458 and IS-122)

CORPORATE REORGANIZATION RELEASES

CHATEAUGAY CORP.

Daniel L. Goelzer, SEC General Counsel, announced that the Commission filed a brief on April 6 in an appeal in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in In re Chateaugay Corp., urging that class proofs of claim are permissible in bankruptcy proceedings. The brief argues that the language of the Bankruptcy Code should be construed to permit the filing of a class claim, based on Supreme Court precedent construing similar statutory language. Further, the Commission argues that the policy favoring class actions, which allows small claims to be heard that otherwise might not be brought, is not outweighed by considerations peculiar to bankruptcy, and that class filings are workable in reorganization proceedings. (Rel. CR-388)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT NAMES THOMAS LEE OAKES

The New York Regional Office announced that, on April 23, the Commission filed a Complaint in the Federal District Court for the Western District of New York charging Thomas Lee Oakes with engaging in a solicitation of proxies from the public shareholders of North Atlantic Fisheries, Inc. (NAF) that violates Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act and the Commission's proxy rules. Without admitting or denying the allegations of the Complaint, Oakes has agreed to settle the charges by consenting to an injunction that prohibits further violations of the proxy solicitation provisions of Section 14(a) and related rules, and prohibits Oakes from voting any proxies that have been improperly solicited. The Commission's Complaint charges Oakes with distributing to shareholders proxy solicitation materials that were not filed with the Commission, as required by Rule 14a-6. The Complaint also alleges that the proxy materials, in violation of Rule 14a-9, are false and misleading because, among other things, they falsely represent that Oakes is NAF's Chief Financial Officer, and they give the false impression that they are endorsed by NAF's management. The Complaint alleges that Oakes' proxy materials omit information required by Rule 14a-3 because, among other things, they do not specify any date, time and place of a shareholders meeting as required by Schedule 14A, Item 1, and they do not state whether the proxy is revocable as required by Schedule 14A, Item 2. It is further alleged that Oakes' proxy materials fail to identify each matter or group of matters to be acted upon, as required by Rule 14a-4(a); fail to provide a means to specify a choice between approval, disapproval or abstention, as required by Rule 14a-4(b); fail to set forth the required information in clear and proper form as required by Rule 14a-5; and fail to include a date, as required by Rule 14a-10. [SEC v. Thomas Lee Oakes, USDC WDNY, Civ-90-0395-T] (LR-12451)

ELECTRONIC CLEARING HOUSE CONSENTS TO INJUNCTION

The Commission announced that today it filed an action in the U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia seeking a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction against Electronic Clearing House Inc. (ECHI) of Agoura Hills, California to enjoin ECHI from further violations of Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act and related Rules 13a-1, 13a-13 and 12b-25. Simultaneously with the filing of the Complaint, ECHI consented to the entry of a Final Judgment. In its Consent, ECHI admitted that since December 29, 1986, it had filed late four Annual Reports on Form 10-K, six Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and had failed to file or filed late seven Notifications of Late Filing on Form 12b-25.

According to its most recent Form 10-K, ECHI is engaged, through its subsidiaries, primarily as a third party (non-bank) processor of credit card activity in the point of sale industry and as an original equipment manufacturer. [SEC v. Electronic Clearing House, Inc., Civ 90-960 (D.D.C., April 25, 1990) (Revercomb, J.) (LR - 12456)]

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

RENE PHILIPPART PLEADS GUILTY TO FELONY INFORMATION

The Denver and Chicago Regional Offices and the U.S. Attorney for the District Colorado jointly announced that, on April 12, Rene Philippart (Philippart) pleaded guilty to a two-count criminal felony information charging him with conspiring with Arnold L. Kimmes (Kimmes), Michael D. Wright (Wright) and others to commit securities fraud and money laundering, and with committing securities fraud. Each count carries a maximum possible penalty of five years imprisonment, a fine of $250,000, or both. Sentencing is set for May 14, 1990. As part of his plea agreement, Philippart agreed to cooperate with various U.S. Government agencies, including the Commission.

Philippart was the president and 90%-owner of Marshall Davis, Inc. (Marshall Davis), a now defunct Denver based broker-dealer firm that specialized in penny stocks. The charges against Philippart stem from his role in manipulating distributing stocks of Calico Corporation and Dun Ventures, Inc., now known as VideoRated, Inc. Each issuer was brought public through a "blind pool" offering without disclosing that its officers and directors were nominees of Kimmes and Wright. Each of the offerings also involved use of nominees as purported purchasers in the initial public offering. The information alleges that Philippart received $88,000 for his participation in the Dun Ventures distribution. [United States v. Rene Philippart, Criminal Action No. 90-Cr-139, USDC Colorado] (LR-12452)

Byus to 90 days incarceration and five years probation based upon his plea of nolo contendere on February 15, 1990 to charges of criminal violations of California securities laws. Also sentenced in the case were Byus' wife, Pauline, and son, Michael. Each received probation periods of three years based upon related please of nolo contendere. [State of California v. Paul Byus, et al., Kern County Superior Court, No. 38758] (LR-12453)
