ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

THE COMMISSION TEMPORARILY SUSPENDS HERBERT CAMPBELL II PURSUANT TO RULE 102(e)(3)

On August 10, Herbert M. Campbell II, an attorney, was temporarily suspended from appearing or practicing before the Commission pursuant to Rule 102(e)(3) of the Commission's Rules of Practice. Campbell, formerly the senior vice president and general counsel of Solv-Ex Corporation, made numerous false and misleading statements regarding Solv-Ex in Commission filings, press releases, letters to shareholders and conference calls with investors and brokers from January 1995 through April 1997.

On May 16, 2000, the U.S. District Court for the District of New Mexico enjoined Campbell from violating the antifraud and reporting provisions of the federal securities laws. For additional information about the injunction entered against Campbell, see prior litigation release No. 16502 (April 5, 2000). The Commission instituted the 102(e)(3) proceeding and temporarily suspended Campbell based on the injunction entered against him.

If Campbell does not file a timely petition with the Commission to lift the temporary suspension, the suspension will become permanent. If Campbell files a timely petition, the Commission may either lift the temporary suspension or set the matter for an administrative hearing, or both. If a hearing is ordered, following the hearing, the Commission may lift the suspension, censure Campbell, or disqualify Campbell from appearing or practicing before the Commission for a period of time or permanently. (Rel. 34-43136; File No. 3-10268)

SEC SUES TEXAS AMERICAN GROUP, INC. AND ITS SENIOR MANAGEMENT FOR MAKING FALSE STATEMENTS ABOUT THE COMPANY'S ASSETS AND ISSUING UNREGISTERED SECURITIES

The Commission announced today that it filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia against Texas American Group, Inc., a Texas corporation headquartered in Verdi, Nevada; Alan E. Humphrey, the company's President; Richard E. Lee, a Texas American Group director; and William Grosvenor, the company's Chief Executive Officer. The Commission's complaint alleges that in 1995 and 1996, the defendants repeatedly made false statements about the company's assets and financial condition in filings with the Commission, at investor seminars, and in promotional materials and advertisements. The complaint further alleges that during the same period, Texas American Group issued over 170 million unregistered shares of its common stock in sham offshore transactions.

According to the complaint, the defendants claimed that Texas American Group owned the Amarilla Golf and Country Club, purportedly a $148 million resort in the Canary Islands, even though Texas American Group never actually owned Amarilla. The complaint also alleges that Texas American Group falsely claimed to own various other assets, including internet lottery and casino games, a hotel development and management company, and a London pathology testing service. The complaint further alleges that Texas American Group falsely claimed in national advertisements recommending the stock that it had $300 million in assets.

In addition, as alleged in the complaint, the defendants issued over 170 million unregistered shares of Texas American Group stock to various offshore persons and entities, for the purported purpose of obtaining real estate and other assets. Notwithstanding the offshore nature of the transactions, the complaint alleges that the issuance of this stock did not qualify for the Regulation S safe harbor from registration because Texas American Group's actions constituted a scheme to temporarily place the securities offshore in order to evade the registration requirements of the federal securities laws. The complaint alleges that Texas American's Group's scheme to evade the registration requirements of the federal securities laws is evidenced by the fact that: (i) many, if not all, of the transactions for which Texas American Group issued stock were shams; (ii) in many cases the stock was issued to entities that appear to be controlled by individuals associated with Texas American Group; and (iii) the stock flowed back into the United States almost immediately after the expiration of what was then the 40-day restricted period under Regulation S.

The complaint alleges that by their conduct, all of the defendants violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act), as set forth in Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. The complaint also alleges that Texas American Group, Humphrey and Grosvenor violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act), as set forth in Section 17(a). The complaint further alleges that Texas American Group, Humphrey and Lee violated the registration provisions of Section 5 of the Securities Act. In addition, the complaint alleges that Humphrey violated Rule 13b2-2 of the Exchange Act for lying to an auditor about the Amarilla transaction and that the company violated Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act and Rules 12b-20, 12b-25, 13a-1, 13a-11 and 13a-13 in connection with various reporting violations.

The complaint seeks permanent injunctions against all of the defendants, a permanent injunction against Humphrey serving as an officer or director of any reporting public company, and civil monetary penalties against Humphrey, Lee and Grosvenor.

This enforcement action is part of the Commission's four-pronged approach to minimizing microcap fraud: enforcement, inspections, investor education and regulation.
