SEC TO HOST ANNUAL GOVERNMENT BUSINESS FORUM

The Commission today announced that the Fifteenth Annual Government Business Forum on Small Business Capital Formation will be held on Thursday, September 26, and Friday, September 27, 1996 in Washington, D.C. at the Hyatt Regency Washington on Capitol Hill.

This year's Forum will focus on taxation, credit and securities regulations. The sessions will be comprised of two parts, following a basic format which has been utilized in recent years. The morning sessions will offer a variety of round-table discussions, each devoted to one of the three targeted topics. The remainder of each morning and the afternoon sessions will be devoted to discussion in small interactive break-out groups in order to permit Forum participants sufficient time to develop thoughtful recommendations.

For further information contact John Murphy in the Commission's Office of Small Business Review on (202) 942-2950, or send an e-mail message to the small business electronic mailbox at "e-prospectus@sec.gov". (Press Rel. 96-92)

RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

AMENDMENTS TO FORM BD ADOPTED AND AMENDMENTS TO FORM BDW PROPOSED

On July 12, the Commission adopted amendments to Form BD, the uniform broker-dealer registration form under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). The primary purpose of the amendments to Form BD is to implement recommended changes to the Central Registration Depository (CRD), a computer system operated by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. that maintains registration information regarding broker-dealers and their registered personnel. Specifically, the amendments are intended to facilitate retrieval of broker-dealer registration and disciplinary information through the redesigned CRD system by eliciting more precise disclosure and by reorganizing disciplinary items into related categories. The amendments to Form BD also include certain clarifying amendments, including instructions for filing Form BD electronically with the CRD.

In a related action, the Commission is proposing for comment amendments to Form BDW, the uniform request for withdrawal from broker-dealer registration under the Exchange Act. These proposed amendments also are intended to implement recommended changes to the CRD system and contain certain clarifying amendments to Form BD and its filing requirements. Together with proposed amendments to Form BDW, the Commission is publishing for comment proposed amendments to rules governing the withdrawal from broker-dealer registration under the Exchange Act. These proposed amendments would permit broker-dealers that are withdrawing from registration to consent to an extension of the effective date of their withdrawal, and would permit the Commission to extend the effective date for such period as the Commission by order may determine. The Commission also is publishing for comment proposed revisions to Exchange Act rules governing the filing of Form BD and Form BDW to provide for electronic filing of these forms and to accommodate the conversion of existing registration information to the redesigned CRD system. (Rel. 34-37431; 34-37432, respectively)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

CIVIL INJUNCTIVE ACTION FILED AND SIMULTANEOUSLY SETTLED AGAINST RICHARD JENKINS

On July 10, the Commission filed a complaint against Richard Jenkins of San Diego, California, alleging that Jenkins misrepresented or failed to disclose to investors that Marada had exclusive agreements with Caribbean nations to develop an airline, casinos and hotels when it had no such agreements; that Marada stock was being sold by Marada "vice presidents" who were, in reality, telemarketers earning 40% commissions; that Marada would apply for listing on NASDAQ when it was practically impossible for Marada to obtain such a listing; the cumulative disciplinary history of key Marada personnel; and, that the only substantial Marada "asset" was not owned free-and-clear. According to the complaint, from at least August 1993 through September 1994, over 200 investors nationwide were defrauded of nearly $2 million.

The Commission seeks to enjoin Jenkins from future violations of Sections 5(a), 5(c) and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Sections 10(b), 15(a)(1) and 15(g) of the Exchange Act, and Rules 10b-5, 15g-2, 15g-4, 15g-5 and 15g-9, and also seeks disgorgement, civil money penalties and other ancillary relief. Prior to the filing of the complaint, Jenkins consented to a permanent injunction. [SEC v. Richard Jenkins, Case No. 96-1347-CIV-T-23C, M.D. Fla.] (LR-14980)
