COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHRISTIAN MIXTER IS NAMED CHIEF LITIGATION COUNSEL

Chairman Levitt today announced that Christian Mixter, Assistant Chief Litigation Counsel, has been appointed Chief Litigation Counsel, Division of Enforcement.

Mr. Mixter has worked at the SEC for more than five years in the Division of Enforcement's Trial Unit. During that time, he played a critical role in a number of the Commission's most significant cases, including the Commission's recent financial fraud case against Comparator, its fraud case against First Jersey Securities and Robert Brennan and its insider trading cases arising out of transactions relating to Rochester Community Savings Bank. In 1995, he also served as the Acting District Administrator for the Fort Worth District Office.

Prior to joining the Commission, Mr. Mixter was an Associate Counsel to Independent Counsel Lawrence Walsh in the investigation of the Iran/Contra matter. He began his legal career at the law firm of Davis Polk & Wardwell. (Press Rel. 96-127)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION SUSTAINS NASD FINDINGS OF VIOLATION AGAINST LEONARD JOHN IALEGGIO AND REMANDS FOR RESANCTIONING

The Commission has sustained certain findings of violation made by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD) against Leonard John Ialeggio of Danville, California. Ialeggio formerly served as a registered representative at W.S. Griffith & Co., Inc., an NASD member and broker-dealer subsidiary of Home Life Insurance Company (Home Life), and as a Home Life Agency Manager and Vice President of Marketing.

The Commission sustained NASD findings that Ialeggio requested and retained reimbursement for travel expenses he did not incur, and induced Home Life to pay country club initiation fees when he was not entitled to such payment. Like the NASD, the Commission concluded that this misconduct violated the NASD rule that requires adherence to high standards of commercial honor and just and equitable principles of trade.

The Commission concluded, however, that the NASD's National Business Conduct Committee (National Committee) made findings as to a violation that was not charged or explored adequately. The Commission further concluded that the National Committee then highlighted that found-but-not-charged misconduct in determining to affirm what the National Committee termed "relatively lenient sanctions" imposed by the hearing panel. Accordingly, the Commission remanded the matter to the NASD for consideration of an appropriate sanction for the violations the Commission sustained. (Rel. 34-37910)

MOTION FOR JUDGMENT OF CIVIL CONTEMPT FILED AGAINST DEFENDANT MICHAEL COLELLO FOR HIS FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH SUPPLEMENTAL REPATRIATION ORDER

On October 22, the Commission filed a motion seeking a judgment of civil contempt against Defendant Michael J. Colello (Colello) for his failure to comply with a July 16, 1996 order of the U.S. District Judge Richard A. Paez of the Central District of California requiring him to repatriate all of his foreign assets, to sign letters directed to Swiss officials and banks in connection with the ordered repatriation and to take all further steps necessary to effectuate repatriation. The Court had previously ordered Colello, a relief defendant in the Commission's civil enforcement action, to disgorge over $2.6 million dollars, and to repatriate his foreign assets. The July 16 order was entered following an application by the Commission for an order to show cause why Colello should not be held in contempt of an earlier March 26, 1996, order requiring his repatriation of assets. For further information see LR-14135, LR-14173, LR-14649, LR-14728, LR-14763 and LR-14887. [SEC v. Cross Financial Services, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 94-4228 RAP, Ex, C.D. Cal.] (LR-15142)

CHRISTIAN MIXTER IS NAMED CHIEF LITIGATION COUNSEL

Washington, D.C., November 4, 1996 -- Chairman Levitt today announced that Christian Mixter, Assistant Chief Litigation Counsel, has been appointed Chief Litigation Counsel, Division of Enforcement.

Mr. Mixter has worked at the SEC for more than five years in the Division of Enforcement's Trial Unit. During that time, he played a critical role in a number of the Commission's most significant cases, including the Commission's recent financial fraud case against Comparator, its fraud case against First Jersey Securities and Robert Brennan and its insider trading cases arising out of transactions relating to Rochester Community Savings Bank. In 1995, he also served as the Acting District Administrator for the Fort Worth District Office.

Prior to joining the Commission, Mr. Mixter was an Associate Counsel to Independent Counsel Lawrence Walsh in the investigation of the Iran/Contra matter. He began his legal career at the law firm of Davis Polk & Wardwell.

Mr. Mixter received B.A. in History summa cum laude, from Ohio State University in 1974. Three years later, he was awarded his J.D. with distinction by Duke University School of Law where he was an Article Editor for the Duke Law Journal.

Chairman Levitt said, "Chris has proven himself a talented litigator with exceptional judgment. He is a prosecutor that combines the best qualities of tenacity and fairness."

William McLucas said, "Chris is a great advocate. During the years that Chris has done battle for the Commission in court, he has earned the respect of his adversaries and his colleagues. He will do an outstanding job leading the Commission's trial team."
