ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER ENTERED AGAINST ROBERT COWAN, INDIVIDUALLY AND DBA CS INVESTMENTS TRUST, AND COWAN ASSET MANAGEMENT, INC., A REGISTERED INVESTMENT ADVISER

The Commission announced the filing of a complaint on November 5 in United States District Court, Lubbock, Texas, against Robert C. Cowan, individually, and doing business as CS Investments Trust (CSI), and Cowan Asset Management, Inc., (CAMI), an investment adviser registered with the Commission, seeking emergency relief under the federal securities laws. The Honorable Sam R. Cummings, United States District Judge, granted the Commission's request for a temporary restraining order prohibiting Cowan, CSI and CAMI from violating the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, and freezing the assets of Cowan, CSI and CAMI. The Court also set November 15, as the date for an evidentiary hearing on the Commission's motion for a preliminary injunction, and ordered that the defendants file a sworn accounting of their financial condition with the Court prior to that date.

According to the complaint, Cowan raised at least $1 million, and as much as $3 million, from his customers for the purpose of purchasing trust units in CSI, which he represented to be an independent investment company registered with the Commission. Further, Cowan allegedly told customers that he would pool these funds with monies obtained from other investors and purchase a portfolio of safe, high-yielding debt instruments, and that CSI would pay an above-market, fixed rate of return for a one-year period, and provide investors with the option to roll-over investments at a newly calculated, above-market fixed rate. In fact, according to the complaint, CSI does not exist, apart from Cowan's misrepresentations, and does not hold securities or funds for customers; rather, Cowan used customers' funds for his personal expenses, and to satisfy periodic payments and redemptions for his customers as part of a "Ponzi" scheme.
