ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

FORMER CFO NAMED IN RULE 102(e) ORDER

Leslie D. Crone, 47, of Dallas, Texas, cannot practice before the Commission as an accountant for three years, according to a Rule 102(e) order entered by the Commission on August 16. Crone consented to the order and a federal court injunction entered August 1, 2001 in related proceedings.

In the federal court proceedings, the Commission alleged that Crone, former Chief Financial Officer of MAX Internet Communications, Inc., and others, caused MAX to overstate its sales by 98% in filings with the Commission. These inflated sales figures prompted a 600% spike in MAX's stock price. According to the Commission, Crone and others knew these sales were illegitimate under generally accepted accounting principles, but recorded them to protect MAX's stock price. The Complaint further alleges that Crone and others misled MAX's auditors, and issued a false press release responding to a March 2000 WALL STREET JOURNAL article questioning MAX's rapid sales growth. According to the Complaint, Crone and others also fabricated the sale of MAX's Brazilian subsidiary to justify recording inventory parked there as a "sale" to a "third party."

The United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, has permanently enjoined Crone from violating or aiding and abetting violations of Sections 10(b), 13(a), 13(b)(2) and 13(b)(5) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5, 12b-20, 13b2-1 and 13b2-2 thereunder; and ordered Crone to pay a civil penalty of $25,000. For further information see SEC v. Larry Biggs, Jr., Donald McLellan and Leslie D. Crone, Civil Action No. 3:01-CV-1474-D, USDC, NDTX (Dallas Div.); LR-17084. ### COMMISSION FILES SETTLED INSIDER TRADING ACTION AGAINST JAMES ANDERSON

The Commission announced that the Honorable Judge Richard W. Story, United States District Judge for the Northern District of Georgia, has issued a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief against James A. Anderson, a resident of Dahlonega, Georgia. The final judgment permanently enjoins Anderson from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and orders him to disgorge ill-gotten gains in the amount of $14,148.16, to pay prejudgment interest, and to pay a civil penalty of $14,148.16.

The Commission's complaint alleges that on or about November 29, 2000 and December 1, 2000, Anderson misappropriated confidential information regarding Century South Bank, Inc.'s ongoing merger negotiations with BB&T Corporation from an individual, who, at the time, was an officer of Century South. The complaint further alleges that on November 29, 2000, Anderson purchased 400 shares of Century South stock at $21.72 per share based upon this misappropriated information. Later on that same date, Anderson purchased an additional 450 shares of Century South stock at $21.75 per share. On December 1, 2000, Anderson purchased another 1,000 shares of Century South stock at $21.95. On December 5, 2000, after the announcement of the acquisition, Anderson sold all 1,850 shares of Century South stock in his portfolio at $29.50 per share, resulting in a realized a profit of $14,148.16.

Without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, Anderson consented to the entry of a final judgment that permanently enjoins him from violating Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. In addition, Anderson agreed to disgorge $14,148.16, to pay prejudgment interest of $106.11 and to pay a civil penalty of $14,148.16. [SEC v. James A. Anderson, Civil Action No. 01-CV-1992, NDGA] (LR-17103)

SEC SUES AMERICAN HEALTHCARE PROVIDERS, INC. AND FIVE INDIVIDUALS FOR ROLES IN INTERNET PUMP-AND-DUMP SCHEME

The Commission announced that it filed a civil injunctive action charging American Healthcare Providers, Inc. and five individuals for their roles in an Internet market manipulation scheme. The Commission's complaint alleges that American Healthcare was a start-up company with "headquarters" in the New York City apartment of one of the defendants, and had virtually no business operations. The Commission charges that after pumping up the price of American Healthcare stock through an extensive campaign of false statements in press releases, Internet message board postings, and the company's website, certain of the defendants sold their American Healthcare stock to the public, reaping at least $1.47 million in illicit gains.

Charged in the Commission's complaint filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, were the following: Angel L. Lorie, age 58, of Miami, Florida, a recidivist securities law violator and a purported "consultant" to American Healthcare; Luis F. Lorie, age 35, of Miami, Florida, the son of Angel Lorie; Arthur W. Wheeler, age 53, of New York City, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of American Healthcare; Lars M. Kram, age 63, of New York City, President of American Healthcare and a member of its Board of Directors until September 2000; Michael Anthony Lester, age 41, of Huntsville, Alabama, an "investor relations" and Internet consultant and, after September 2000, President of American Healthcare; and American Healthcare, a Delaware corporation headquartered in Wheeler's apartment.

The Commission seeks the following relief: (i) permanent injunctions from further violations of the antifraud, registration, and antitouting provisions of the federal securities laws (Sections 5(a) and (c) and 17(a) and (b) of the Securities Act of 1933, and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 10(b)(5) thereunder); (ii) a permanent injunction against Angel Lorie against further violations of a Commission Order prohibiting Angel Lorie from participation in a penny stock offering and from Section 15(b) of the Exchange Act; (iii) disgorgement from Wheeler, Kram, Angel Lorie, and Luis Lorie; (iv) civil monetary penalties against Wheeler, Kram, Angel Lorie, Luis Lorie, and Lester; and (v) an order barring Wheeler, Kram, Angel Lorie, Luis Lorie, and Lester from serving as officers or directors of a public company.

On June 15, 2000, the SEC issued a ten-day suspension of trading in the securities of American Healthcare because of questions raised about the accuracy of publicly disseminated information concerning American Healthcare. The trading suspension followed a press release by American Healthcare in May 2000 in which American Healthcare announced an exclusive multi-million dollar contract with the New York City Link program, a service that seeks to ensure that mentally ill patients from New York City prisons receive necessary treatment and medication. The Commission's complaint alleges that the press release was false and that no such contract ever existed. [SEC v. American Healthcare Providers, Inc., Arthur W. Wheeler, Lars M. Kram, Angel L. Lorie Jr., Luis F. Lorie and Michael Anthony Lester, 01 CV 7649, BSJ, SDNY] (LR-17104)

JUDGE APPOINTS RECEIVER OVER FRAUDULENT INTERNET TECHNOLOGY COMPANY SUED BY SEC

The Commission announced that on August 14 the Honorable Ronald M. Whyte, United States District Judge for the Northern District of California, appointed a receiver over PacketSwitch.Com, Inc., a San Jose, California company that is alleged to have raised more than $3.7 million by fraudulently claiming that the company had a proprietary technology for broadcasting movies wirelessly over the Internet. The Court's order, which granted preliminary injunctive relief, found that the Commission had demonstrated a probability of success on the merits of the action against PacketSwitch.Com and appointed Jerome E. Robertson as Receiver over the company.

The Commission's complaint, filed on July 9, 2001, alleges that from at least February 1999 through September 2000, PacketSwitch.Com and its founder and former CEO, Steven A. Ristau, fraudulently raised funds from at least 700 investors. According to the complaint, Ristau knew many of the investors through his relationships with large churches in the San Jose area. Among other things, the defendants told investors that PacketSwitch.Com:

- had a new, proprietary technology that allowed it to broadcast movies wirelessly over the Internet;
- either had or was in the process of obtaining patents for its purported Internet technology;
- had substantial operations in Africa and Asia, including a billion dollar contract with the Republic of Korea; and
- had strategic partnerships and alliances with various large, publicly traded telecommunications companies.

According to the complaint, each of these claims was false. In particular, the complaint alleges, PacketSwitch.Com was a start-up company with no revenue and no real product and its purported technology was simply an off-the-shelf commercial product that did not have the capability of broadcasting movies wirelessly over the Internet.

The complaint further alleges that the defendants failed to disclose that a significant portion of the funds raised went to finance Ristau's lavish lifestyle. This includes more than $550,000 that went towards the purchase of a $1.8 million home in San Jose, as well as funds used to pay for Ristau's family vacation to Hawaii, his delinquent child support, his personal bodyguards, Lexus automobile, and other personal items. The complaint also alleges that Ristau improperly received sales commissions based on a percentage of the proceeds raised by the company.

The complaint alleges that Ristau and PacketSwitch.Com violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, Sections 5 and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. In addition, the complaint alleges that Ristau violated the broker-dealer registration provisions of Section 15(a) of the Exchange Act. The Commission seeks a permanent injunction against defendants' future violations of these provisions, disgorgement of all ill-gotten gains, civil money penalties against Ristau, and an order prohibiting Ristau from acting as a director or officer of any public company. [SEC v. PacketSwitch.Com, Inc. and Steven A. Ristau, USDC, NDCA, Civil Action No. 01-20626 (RMW)] (LR-17105)

INVESTMENT ADVISERS ACT RELEASES

ARTISAN PARTNERS LIMITED PARTNERSHIP AND HIRTLE CALLAGHAN TRUST

A notice has been issued giving interested persons until September 10, 2001, to request a hearing on an application filed by Artisan Partners Limited Partnership (APLP) and the Hirtle Callaghan Trust for an order under Section 206A of the Investment Advisers Act. The order would permit APLP to charge a performance fee based on the performance of that portion of a Trust portfolio managed by APLP (APLP Account). The order further would permit applicants to compute the performance-related portion of the fee using changes in the APLP Account's gross asset value rather than net asset value. (Rel. IA-1969 – August 16)
