CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

JOHN ARNOLD ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on March 5, 1993 the Honorable William L. Beatty, United States District Court Judge for the Southern District of Illinois entered an Order of Permanent Injunction, by consent, against Defendant John E. Arnold enjoining him from future violations of the antifraud and broker-dealer registration provisions of the federal securities laws. The issue of whether to impose civil penalties on Arnold will be determined by the Court at a later date.

The Commission's complaint alleged that from about October 1990 through October 1991, while employed as a registered representative by Independent Financial Securities, Inc., a registered broker-dealer, Arnold misappropriated for personal use in excess of $200,000 from the accounts of at least seven of his customers. The complaint further alleged that Arnold diverted to himself in excess of $38,000 in commission income by conducting approximately $1,300,000 worth of private securities transactions through E.C.I. Investments, an entity wholly owned by Arnold that was not registered with the Commission as a broker-dealer.

On March 31, 1992, in a prior criminal action relating to the same conduct, Arnold was sentenced to 27 months imprisonment and ordered to make restitution of approximately $250,000. [SEC v. Arnold, USDC, SD Ill., Civil Action No. 92-657-WLB] (LR-13671)

Zapata also sought a temporary order under Section 3(b)(2) or Section 6(c) extending the sixty day automatic exemption provided by Section 3(b)(2) upon the filing of an application in good faith, to permit the Commission to make a final determination upon the request for a permanent order. The temporary order will expire ninety days from the date of its issuance. Prior to the issuance of a permanent order to Zapata, if any, the Commission will issue a notice giving interested persons an opportunity to request a hearing. (Rel. IC-19524 - June 14)
