RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

REQUEST FOR COMMENTS ON STANDARD OF CONDUCT

The Commission has published a release soliciting public comment on an interpretation of the standard of conduct that constitutes "unethical or improper professional practice" before the Commission. This standard was previously announced by the Commission in the context of a professional disciplinary adjudication, In re Carter, Rel. 34-17597, 22 SEC Docket 292 (February 28, 1981). The Commission is not soliciting comments on the issue of the Commission's authority to adopt and administer a rule that provides for the discipline of persons who practice before the agency.

The Commission intends to analyze the comments to determine whether or not it should expand or modify the previously announced standard. After careful consideration, the Commission will issue a further release summarizing and analyzing the comments received.

Interested persons should submit six copies of their written comments to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Room 892, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549, on or before November 27 and should refer to File No. S7-905. (Rel. 33-6344)

Lord, without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint, consented to the entry of a Permanent Injunction enjoining and restraining him from violating and aiding and abetting violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5 and 10b-6 thereunder. ### NADINE GAN PERMANENTLY ENJOINED

The Boston Regional Office announced that the Honorable Frank H. Freedman, U.S. District Judge for the District of Massachusetts, entered an order permanently enjoining Nadine Gan from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer, purchase and sale of investment contracts in the form of shares in investment clubs or any other security.

The Commission commenced its action on September 4 by filing a complaint which alleged, among other things, that Gan violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws by offering and selling unregistered securities and by engaging in fraudulent conduct in connection with the offer, purchase and sale of the subject securities.

The defendant consented to the Judgment of Permanent Injunction without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint. (SEC v. Nadine Gan, U.S.D.C., District of Mass., Civil Action No. 81-0261-F). (LR-9451)
