COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF FLORIDA PENNY STOCK TASK FORCE

The Atlanta Regional and Miami Branch Offices announce the first anniversary of the Florida Penny Stock Task Force. On July 11, the Miami Branch Office held its fifth quarterly meeting of the Task Force in Miami.

The Task Force is comprised of representatives from the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Districts No. 7 (Atlanta, Georgia) and No. 3 (Denver, Colorado), the Anti-Fraud Section of the NASD (Washington, DC), Florida Division of Securities, Georgia Secretary of State's Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Attorney's Office, Internal Revenue Service-Criminal Intelligence Division, and the Commission's Miami Branch, Atlanta Regional, Chicago Regional, and New York Regional Offices, and the Divisions of Enforcement and Market Regulation.

The purpose of the meeting was to report on the first year's activities of the Task Force, to consider new methods of continuing public education about penny stock fraud, to discuss criminal law enforcement activities, regulatory activities, examinations and enforcement activities, penny stock trends in the southeastern United States, and methods of developing new tactics and strategies for regulating, investigating, and prosecuting penny stock broker-dealers.

[The Miami Branch Office acknowledges the substantial participation in the Florida Penny Stock Task Force by Mr. Bennett Whipple, Vice President and District Director of NASD District No. 7, and Mr. Don B. Saxon, Director of the Florida Division of Securities.]

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

MICHAEL HELVEY ENJOINED AND ASSETS FROZEN

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on July 19 U.S. District Court Judge John W. Potter, Northern District of Ohio, entered a Temporary Restraining Order against Michael J. Helvey, an investment adviser and registered representative, freezing Helvey's assets, ordering ancillary equitable relief, and enjoining him from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws and the reporting, books and records, and other provisions of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

The July 19 Complaint alleged that since at least June 1987, Helvey misappropriated approximately $122,000 from clients by means of a scheme which involved the redemption of client securities by means of forged client redemption requests and appropriation of the proceeds for his own use. He also directly misappropriated $60,000 from another client by depositing in his own account funds the client had given him for investment purposes. (SEC v. Michael J. Helvey, Civil Action No. 3:89CV7416, USDC NDOH). (LR-12177)

ROBERT RIDENOUR ENJOINED IN INTERPOSITIONING SCHEME

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on July 12 Judge Donald E. O'Brien entered Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, Order and Judgment against Robert L. Ridenour, permanently enjoining him from further violations of the antifraud and broker-dealer registration provisions of the securities laws. The Order and Judgment, entered after a trial on the merits, require Ridenour to disgorge $470,287.23, plus interest, from April 25, 1985, the date the Commission began its action. The disgorgement figure represents the profits which accrued to Ridenour in an interpositioning scheme involving over 129 individual transactions which took place from November 1979 through January 1984.

Ridenour was employed as a registered representative for Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc. in its Des Moines, Iowa, office at the time of his violative conduct. Ridenour established secret accounts away from Dean Witter which he interposed between his clients' securities transactions and the true market for those transactions. Ridenour's customers were primarily small Iowa banks which did not have access to the sophisticated bond market pricing information available to Ridenour by virtue of his position as a Dean Witter institutional bond salesman. (SEC v. Robert L. Ridenour, SDIA, Civil Action No. 85-343-E). (LR-12178)
