U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

ADOPTION OF RULE 15b2-2

The Commission has adopted Rule 15b2-2 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which authorizes and directs self-regulatory organizations to conduct an inspection of every new broker-dealer member within six months of the firm's registration with the Commission. The purposes of this rule are to avoid duplicative Commission and self-regulatory organization inspections of broker-dealers and to use the Commission's resources more efficiently. (Rel. 34-18556)

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL OF PROPOSED RULES FROM PUBLIC COMMENT

The Commission announced today that it is withdrawing from public comment proposed Rule 238 under the Securities Act of 1933 and proposed Rules 9b-2, 9b-3 and 9b-4(A) and (B) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, all of which relate to options trading. (Rel. 33-6390)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

JAMES S. DOYLE AND THOMAS F. RYAN BARRED

Administrative Law Judge David J. Markun has issued an Initial Decision barring James S. Doyle and Thomas F. Ryan from association with a broker-dealer. Messrs. Doyle and Ryan were formerly employed by a broker-dealer at its Huntington, New York, branch.

The sanctions were imposed upon the basis of findings that Respondents, along with Russell Reed, were convicted after a jury trial in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York, in July of 1980, on one count of securities fraud, three counts of mail fraud, and one count of conspiracy to commit securities and mail fraud. The felony convictions were affirmed in 1981 on appeal to the Second Circuit of Court of Appeals.

An additional basis for imposition of the sanctions was the entry of permanent injunctions against Respondents in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, in December 1978, on their consent, without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, from violations of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or of Rule 10b-5 issued thereunder, in connection with the purchase or sale of any security.

The criminal convictions and the injunctions both arose out of a scheme under which Reed was able to engage in more than $2 million worth of speculative trading in securities through the broker-dealer firm of Shearson Hayden Stone Inc., where Respondents were then employed, without putting up his own money, through the writing of numerous checks upon accounts in which the funds were insufficient to cover the checks. When the Reed account was ultimately closed out the broker-dealer firm sustained a loss of some $379,000.

The decision is subject to review by the Commission on its own motion or on petition of a party.

COMPLAINT NAMES HOTEL ASSOCIATES OF ATLANTIC CITY, OTHERS

The Commission announced that on March 9 it filed and partially settled a civil injunctive action in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey against Hotel Associates of Atlantic City (Hotel Associates), a limited partnership organized for the purpose of constructing a hotel and casino complex in Atlantic City, New Jersey, three of its current and former general partners and a related entity, Route 1 Hotel Corporation. The individuals named as defendants in the action are Al Olshan (Olshan), Angelo Cigolini (Cigolini) and Martin Marsh (Marsh).

The Commission's complaint alleges that, in connection with a public offering of limited partnership interests in Hotel Associates in April 1978, the defendants omitted to disclose that Olshan, who was Hotel Associates' construction contractor, Angelo Sarubbi and Nunzio Sodano were undisclosed general partners; omitted to state that on or before February 1978 Olshan caused Hotel Associates to grant Charles Worthington, for a $10 consideration, an option to purchase 4 acres of property; failed to disclose that Hotel Associates had identified a lessee for its proposed casino; and omitted to state that in connection with an unregistered offering of limited partnership interests and a revised distribution plan, Olshan and Hotel Associates caused excess distributions to be made to friends and acquaintances of Olshan.

Without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, Hotel Associates and Cigolini consented to the entry of a final judgment permanently enjoining them from violating the antifraud and reporting provisions of the Federal securities laws. Marsh, without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, consented to a final order of the court which prohibited him from violating certain of the antifraud and reporting provisions of the Federal securities laws. Hotel Associates was also enjoined from violating Section 5 of the Securities Act and ordered to distribute a copy of the Commission's complaint to its limited partners. The Commission's action against Olshan and Route 1 continues. (SEC v. Hotel Associates of Atlantic City, et al., Civil Action No. 82-721.) (LR-9612)

SIPC TRUSTEE APPOINTED FOR T. E. SLANKER CO., INC.

The Seattle Regional Office announced that Douglas M. Thompson of Portland, Oregon, was appointed a SIPC trustee for T. E. Slanker Co. of Portland, Oregon, and T. E. Slanker Co., Inc., its successor, a registered broker-dealer located in Portland, Oregon. The trustee was ordered to proceed with the liquidation of the company. The Commission had previously obtained a permanent injunction against the defendants for violations of the net capital rule and customer protection rule. On February 4, 1982, SIPC had intervened in the Commission's case, at which time Douglas M. Thompson had been appointed as a temporary receiver, pending a hearing on the appointment of a trustee. (SEC v. T. E. Slanker Co., et al, USDC Ore. Civil File No. 81-540PA.) (LR-9611)
