DECISIONS IN ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

R. WAYNE EVERETT & ASSOCIATES, INC.
AND ROGER WAYNE EVERETT SANCTIONED

The Commission has revoked the broker-dealer registration of R. Wayne Everett & Associates, Inc., of Bettendorf, Iowa, and has barred Roger Wayne Everett, formerly of Bettendorf, Iowa, presently residing in Longwood, Florida, from association with any broker or dealer, investment adviser, investment company or affiliate thereof. These sanctions were based upon an offer of settlement submitted by R. Wayne Everett & Associates, Inc. and Mr. Everett wherein, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's order for proceedings, both R. Wayne Everett & Associates, Inc. and Mr. Everett consented to the sanctions and findings that they wilfully violated and wilfully aided and abetted violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws, and failed reasonably to supervise employees. Both R. Wayne Everett & Associates, Inc. and Mr. Everett were named as respondents by the Commission in its order for proceedings entitled in the matter of R. Wayne Everett & Associates, Inc., et al. Mr. Everett was president and a director of R. Wayne Everett & Associates, Inc. (Rel. 34-12792)

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE ACTION
AGAINST CARL F. CAMPBELL AFFIRMED

The Commission has affirmed a $1,500 fine imposed by the New York Stock Exchange on Carl F. Campbell, of St. Louis. Campbell is a supervisory analyst with an Exchange member firm. The Commission found, as did the Exchange, that Campbell engaged in conduct "inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade." He prepared and signed a number of research reports for his firm which recommended three securities without disclosing that the firm was making a market in those securities. (Rel. 34-12793)

COURT ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS

J-TEX PETROLEUM CORPORATION AND
DAVID L. JOHNSON, SR. ENJOINED

The Fort Worth Regional Office announced that on September 13 and August 10 Federal District Judge Robert W. Porter at Dallas, Texas entered orders of preliminary injunction against J-Tex Petroleum Corporation and David L. Johnson, Sr., both of Abilene, Texas, formerly of Dallas, preliminarily enjoining them from violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws.

Previously, on August 4 Judge Porter entered an order permanently enjoining David L. Johnson, Jr. of San Antonio, Texas, from violations of the registration provisions of the securities laws.

The Commission's complaint alleged violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of fractional undivided working interests in oil and gas leases located in Shackelford, Stephens and Throckmorton Counties, Texas issued by J-Tex Petroleum Corporation. (SEC v. J-Tex Petroleum Corporation, ND/Tex.). (LR-7575)

COMPLAINT NAMES FIRST OMAHA SECURITIES CORPORATION, OTHERS

The Denver Regional Office announced that on September 8 a complaint was filed in the Federal District Court for the District of Nebraska seeking a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, and a permanent injunction enjoining First Omaha Securities Corporation and certain of its principals--Cliff Rue Rahel, Robert Perelman, Ernest Gordon Field, and John Joe Ricketts--from violating certain of the provisions of the securities laws which require broker-dealers registered with the Commission to make and keep certain records relating to their business to verify the correctness of the records periodically and to notify the Commission whenever such records are not correct or accurate and to determine whether a bank account number for the exclusive benefit of customers has the required balance.

The complaint alleges that First Omaha Securities Corporation, aided and abetted by the individual defendants, who were all officers and directors of the firm, violated the aforementioned requirements.

The Honorable Richard E. Robinson, District Court Judge, on September 9 entered a temporary restraining order prohibiting First Omaha Securities Corporation from violating the above described provisions of laws and also prohibiting First Omaha Securities Corporation from acting as a broker or dealer while it is violating such laws.

Such order is to remain in effect until, in substance, further action is taken by the Court in the suit. The defendant, First Omaha Securities Corporation, consented to the entry of the temporary restraining order. (SEC v. First Omaha Securities Corporation, USDC, Nebr., 76-0-343). (LR-7576)

FRANK SALGAN ENJOINED

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on August 17 the Honorable George Leighton, U.S. District Court Judge for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, entered a final judgment permanently enjoining Frank Salgan from violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws. Salgan consented to the issuance of the order, without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint.

The complaint, which was filed on June 16 alleged that Salgan violated the aforesaid antifraud provisions by engaging in a scheme to defraud individuals of approximately $600,000 by means of utilizing forged letters purportedly written by officers of 2 corporations which falsely represented that these companies had securities in registration with the Commission and that Salgan was authorized to offer these securities to investors and that investors would make substantial profits when they sold these securities since they could purchase them at a substantial discount. (SEC v. Frank Salgan, ND/Ill., 76-C-2239). (LR-7577)

COMPLAINT NAMES BEE-LGEE INVESTMENT FUND, INC., OTHERS

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on August 26 a civil injunctive complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, seeking to enjoin BEE-LGEE Investment Fund, Inc., VIP Investment Corporation and Benjamin L. Grab from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of promissory notes and limited partnership interests. (SEC v. BEE-LGEE Investment Fund, Inc., et al., Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, Civil Action No. 76-C-3189). (LR-7578)
