DECISIONS IN ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

CHARLES B. COSSE' SUSPENDED

The Commission has issued an order suspending Charles B. Cosse', president of Cosse' International Securities, Inc., a Seattle broker-dealer, from association with any broker-dealer or investment adviser for a period of 90 days. Cosse' may, however, become re-associated with the firm after a period of 60 days in a supervised, non-supervisory capacity. The Commission also censured Cosse' International Securities, Inc. The Commission's order is based upon an offer of settlement submitted by Cosse' and the firm in which respondents consented to the sanctions. The order of proceedings upon which the settlement was based alleged that Cosse' and the firm wilfully violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. (Rel. 34-12943)
