DECISIONS IN ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

---

NEALE F. HOOLEY SUSPENDED

The Commission has suspended Neale F. Hooley, of Westfield, New Jersey, from association with any investment adviser or investment company for a period of 60 days. The sanctions were based on findings that Hooley caused, aided and abetted violations of the provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 governing approval of advisory contracts and selection of accountants and prohibiting false and misleading statements in proxy solicitation materials, filings with the Commission and required books and records. Hooley consented to the findings and sanctions without admitting or denying the charges against him. (Rel. IC-9514)

GOTHAM SECURITIES CORPORATION, PRESIDENT SANCTIONED

The Commission has revoked the broker-dealer registration of Gotham Securities Corporation of Wilton, Connecticut. It also barred Peter Caplin, the firm's president, from association with any broker or dealer. After fourteen months, he may apply for permission to return to the securities business in a non-proprietary, non-supervisory capacity upon a showing of adequate supervision.

The Commission found that Gotham, aided and abetted by Caplin, fraudulently induced the purchase of shares, submitted quotations to the publisher of the pink sheets without having required information, and failed to inform the publisher that quotations were being entered pursuant to arrangements with another dealer that guaranteed Gotham a profit on transactions in the securities quoted. (Rel. 34-12956)

SUSPENSION OF REGULATION A EXEMPTION OF W.E. HAUCK, INC. MADE PERMANENT

An order has been issued permanently suspending the Regulation A exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with respect to the offering of securities of W.E. Hauck, Inc.

According to the order, the Commission found that: the notification and offering circular of W.E. Hauck, Inc. omit to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading; W.E. Hauck, Inc. failed to comply with the terms and conditions of Regulation A; and the offering, if made, would be in violation of Section 17 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Without admitting or denying the above findings, W.E. Hauck, Inc. consented to the above findings and to the issuance of the permanent suspension order. (Rel. 33-5760)

Buinno, U.S. District Judge in the District of New Jersey, signed a final judgment of permanent injunction enjoining Robert Prodan of Morganville, New Jersey, from violations of the reporting and anti-fraud provisions of the securities laws. The Commission's complaint alleged that Prodan violated the aforementioned provisions in the discounting of more than $1.7 million in bogus leases at TransJersey Bancorp.'s wholly-owned subsidiary, the Bank of Bloomfield. Prodan consented to the entry of the final judgment without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint. (SEC v.
