To: The authorities concerned,

Most of the complicated financial inventions are beyond me. But it would be nice to know that I am not headed towards destitution because some financial wizards are bent on destroying my hard-earned investments.

After all, isn't the quality of a nation's democracy proved by how we take care of the weakest and the most fragile?

I am well aware that the world of finance can be a jungle and the fittest survive. But the brutality of the attacks spurs me to appeal to you.
