Dear Jonathan,

I have been contacted by several constituents who are inquiring about the Securities and Exchange Commission's proposed rule that would regulate the sale of fixed annuities.

I have enclosed a copy of the original letter, and I would appreciate it if you could please provide us information that addresses the issue consistent with your applicable rules and regulations.

I know that the matter will be carefully and objectively reviewed, and I am grateful for any assistance you may be able to render. Please forward any correspondence to my legislative correspondent Elisabeth Doherty in my Washington D.C. office. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Donald A. Manzullo

Constituent is requesting an extension from the SEC for the Comment period and to oppose a recently proposed rule, 151A, which regulates the sale of fixed annuities to be registered products sold only through a broker-dealer and not insurance agent. This rule, if enacted, will have a negative impact on constituent's livelihood.
