“Finding and Paying for Addiction Treatment Services in Your Community”

Webcast: Wednesday, August 6, 2003, 3 to 4 p.m., EST
<http://www.recoverymonth.gov/2003/multimedia>

Individuals with alcohol and/or drug abuse disorders fail to get addiction treatment for many reasons, including the cost of treatment; unavailability of support services, such as childcare or transportation; and lack of services in specific geographic regions. This Webcast will identify various barriers to receiving treatment and highlight alternative ways of finding and paying for addiction treatment.

Join host Ivette Torres, Associate Director for Consumer Affairs, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT), Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), and a panel of experts to explore innovative approaches to locate and fund addiction treatment in this important and timely Webcast.

Panelists: Stephenie Colston, SAMHSA; Henry Lozano, President's Advisory Commission on Drug-Free Communities; Ilene Baker, Pima Prevention Partnership; and Janice Ford Griffin, Join Together.

This Webcast will be archived for viewing at any time after the August 6, 2003 premiere at <http://www.recoverymonth.gov/2003/multimedia>. Videotapes will be available through SAMHSA's National Clearinghouse for Alcohol and Drug Information at a cost of $12.50 per copy. Copies can be ordered online at www.recoverymonth.gov.
