The Recovery Month Web Event Season Continues With...

“Expanding Addiction Treatment Capacity to Meet All Needs”

Webcast: Wednesday, April 2, 2003, 3 to 4 p.m., EST
<http://www.recoverymonth.gov/2003/multimedia/>

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' (HHS) Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) has been at the forefront of efforts to expand the capacity of local communities to treat substance addictions. This includes designing programs to specifically address discrepancies in treatment capacity and studying behavioral and addiction treatment financing systems to put forward novel approaches aimed at expanding science-based addiction treatment capacity.

Join Webcast Host Ivette Torres, Associate Director for Consumer Affairs, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT), SAMHSA, HHS, and a panel of experts to explore our Nation's continuing efforts to make addiction treatment services available to everyone in need.

Panelists: Jerome H. Jaffe, M.D., Clinical Professor of Psychiatry, University of Maryland; Mady Chalk, Ph.D., Division of Services Improvement, HHS/SAMHSA/CSAT; Jeff Morrow, President, Scripps McDonald Center Alumni Association; Henry Lozano, Co-Chair, President's Advisory Commission on Drug-Free Communities.

This Webcast will be archived for viewing at any time after the April 2, 2003 premiere at <http://www.recoverymonth.gov/2003/multimedia/>. Videotapes will be available through SAMHSA's National Clearinghouse for Alcohol and Drug Information at a cost of $12.50 per copy. Copies can be ordered online at www.recoverymonth.gov.
