Our Ground Rules for Success

- Participate actively and in your own style... share your ideas, insights, experiences and opinions; encourage others to share
- Bring forward your challenges and issues
- Respect each others' diverse experience and opinions, even if you disagree
- Listen and seek understanding
- Manage distractions – side talk, mobile phones, note passing, etc.
- Stay focused – avoid tangential discussions
- Be prompt in returning from breaks and lunch
- Speak to the room, project your voice
- Use a parking board to track later issues as needed
