TWO MORE SENTENCED IN BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA, ON FEDERAL FEMA FRAUD CHARGES

BATON ROUGE, LA – United States Attorney David R. Dugas announced that two more Louisiana residents were sentenced in federal court today by U.S. District Court Judge James J. Brady on fraud charges related to hurricane disaster relief programs.

GREGORY PATIN, age 26, of Baton Rouge, pled guilty to Count One of an indictment charging him with making a false claim for Hurricane Katrina disaster assistance benefits. He was sentenced to five years probation, $4,000 in restitution, and six months of home detention.

LETONYA PATIN, age 34, of Baton Rouge, pled guilty to Counts One and Three of an indictment charging her with making false claims for Hurricane Katrina disaster assistance benefits. She was sentenced to five years probation, and restitution in the amount of $4,000.

The U.S. Secret Service; the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Office of Inspector General; the Social Security Administration, Office of Inspector General; the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Office of Inspector General; the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and the East Baton Rouge Parish Sheriff's Office conducted the investigation of this matter.

The number of individuals who have been charged in the Middle District of Louisiana with violations related to Hurricane Katrina relief funds stands at sixty-four.

In September 2005, Attorney General Alberto R. Gonzales created the Hurricane Katrina Fraud Task Force, designed to deter, investigate and prosecute disaster-related federal crimes such as charity fraud, identity theft, procurement fraud and insurance fraud. The Hurricane Katrina Fraud Task Force – chaired by Assistant Attorney General Alice S. Fisher of the Criminal Division – includes members from the FBI, the Federal Trade Commission, the Postal Inspector's Office, and the Executive Office for United States Attorneys, among others.

For further information, contact David R. Dugas, U.S. Attorney for the Middle District of Louisiana, or Lyman Thornton, First Assistant U.S. Attorney, at (225) 389-0443. Anyone suspecting criminal activity involving disaster assistance programs can make an anonymous report by calling the toll-free Hurricane Relief Fraud Hotline, 1-866-720-5721, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, until further notice. Information can also be emailed to the Hurricane Katrina Fraud Task Force at HKFTF@leo.gov or sent by surface mail, with as many details as possible, to Hurricane Katrina Fraud Task Force, Baton Rouge, LA 70821-4909.
