BATON ROUGE, LA – United States Attorney David R. Dugas announced that two more Louisiana residents were sentenced in federal court today by U.S. District Court Judge Frank J. Polozola on fraud charges related to hurricane disaster relief programs.

RONALD A. GUIDRY, age 32, of Baton Rouge, pled guilty to Count One of an indictment charging him with making a false claim for Hurricane Katrina disaster assistance benefits. He was sentenced to three years probation, a $1,000 fine, $2,000 in restitution, and 100 hours of community service.

DEBBIE A. FOSTER, age 34, of Baton Rouge, pled guilty to Count One of an indictment charging her with making a false claim for Hurricane Katrina disaster assistance benefits. She was sentenced to three years probation, $2,000 in restitution, and 50 hours of community service.

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Office of Inspector General, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation conducted the investigations of these matters.

The number of individuals who have been charged in the Middle District of Louisiana with violations related to Hurricane Katrina relief funds stands at sixty-eight.

In September 2005, Attorney General Alberto R. Gonzales created the Hurricane Katrina Fraud Task Force, designed to deter, investigate and prosecute disaster-related federal crimes such as charity fraud, identity theft, procurement fraud and insurance fraud. The Hurricane Katrina Fraud Task Force – chaired by Assistant Attorney General Alice S. Fisher of the Criminal Division – includes the FBI, the U.S. Inspectors General community, the U.S. Secret Service, the U.S. Postal Inspection Service, the Executive Office for United States Attorneys and others.
