

Researching professional transportation career opportunities

The faculty encourages students to do it themselves . . .

Students work to complete a design project

Putting it all together

Students working on their model bridge

Students working on their model rocket

The team gathers for a group shot

A transportation worker explains the function of the incident response unit

A dock visit to a U.S. Coast Guard vessel

Classroom time anchors the program

Students participate in model dragster race