

Advocacy: the voice of small business in government

Small Business Profile: TEXAS

In Texas, small businesses are vital to the financial well-being of the state's economy. Their contribution is essential for economic growth since they make up almost all employer firms in the state. As entrepreneurs and innovators, small business owners represented a diverse group in 2004 and continued to keep the state's economy productive. The Small Business Profile provides information on the performance of small businesses in the state using the most current federal data available.

Number of Businesses. There were an estimated 1,787,607 small businesses in Texas in 2004.¹ Of the 404,683 firms with employees, an estimated 98.7 percent, or 399,323, were small firms. In 2004, the estimated number of employer businesses increased by 1.4 percent. The number of self-employed persons (including incorporated) increased overall by 1.7 percent, from 1,180,007 in 2003 to 1,200,306 in 2004. Non-employer businesses numbered 1,388,284 in 2002, an increase of 5.2 percent since 2001, based on the most recent data available. (Sources: U.S. Dept. of Labor, Employment and Training Administration; U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau; U.S. Dept of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics.)

Women-Owned Businesses. In 2002 women-owned firms totaled 469,049, an increase of 23 percent from 1997, and generated $66.8 billion in revenues. Firms owned jointly by women and men numbered 207,412 with revenues of $53.5 billion. Women represented 32.7 percent of the self-employed persons in the state. (Sources: U.S. Dept. of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics; U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau.)

Minority-Owned Businesses. In 2002, Hispanic-owned firms numbered 319,460, an increase of 33 percent from 1997. Black-owned firms numbered 88,777, an increase of 47 percent; Asian-owned firms numbered 78,018, an increase of 32 percent; American Indian and Alaska Native-owned firms numbered 16,863, an increase of 8 percent; and there were 1,543 Native Hawaiian and other Pacific Islander-owned businesses.² (Source: U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau.)

² Minority owners may be in more than one minority group.

Business Turnover. There were an estimated 54,098 new employer businesses in 2004, 2.7 percent more than the previous year. Business terminations numbered 55,792 in 2004, an increase of 0.6 percent. Business bankruptcies decreased by 1.9 percent and totaled 3,094 in 2004. (Sources: U.S. Dept. of Labor, Employment and Training Administration; Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts; U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau.)

Employment. Small firms with fewer than 500 employees numbered 368,118 in 2002 and employed 3,758,770 individuals, or 47 percent of the state's non-farm private sector (Table 1).³ Net job gains among firms with fewer than 20 employees totaled 69,880, while large firms with 500 or more employees lost 186,869 jobs between 2001 and 2002 (Table 2). (Source: U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau, Statistics of U.S. Businesses.)

Small Business Income. Non-farm proprietors' income, a partial measure of small business income, increased by 6.4 percent, from $90.4 billion in 2002 to $96.2 billion in 2003. (Source: U.S. Dept. of Commerce.)

Finance. Commercial bank lenders are an important source of small business loans, and small firms usually rely on them for financing. Over the last 10 years the number of banks in Texas has declined (Table 3). The Office of Advocacy has identified banks in each state that make the most loans to small businesses. This information is available in its banking studies at www.sba.gov/advo/research/lending.html.
