

Private Stock Use

Generally, the trails of Glacier National Park are open to stock (i.e., horses, mules, donkeys, and llamas) as well as foot travel. There are a few trails, due to their physical condition or unsuitability, that are not available for stock use. See list on reverse. Check for maintenance schedules to determine if rock and downfall have been cleared from the trails, and/or whether lingering snowfields may impede your passage. It is a good idea to check on the status of river crossings, especially the Middle Fork of the Flathead. Stock use is permitted on park roads when closed to motor vehicles with the exceptions of the Going-to-the-Sun Road (west of the Continental Divide) and the Camas Road. Dirt roads where stock use is permitted (when open to motor vehicles) are the Old Flathead Ranger Station Road from the Apgar concession barn and the spur road to the Apgar Lookout Trailhead.

Temporary Closures Day Use Limits

Certain conditions may cause trails to be closed to stock use. Generally, this is in the early summer, when they still have steep snow drifts, before trails have dried out sufficiently, or during extended periods of wet weather. Bear activity may also result in temporary closures at any time. To be certain, check at a visitor center or ranger station. The day use limit shall be no more than 10 animals in a party, except on the trails listed on the reverse, where 20 shall be allowed due to special maintenance or other considerations. This list may be modified by the superintendent.

Overnight Camping

Overnight use of the backcountry is controlled by the issuance of a Backcountry Use Permit. Permits are issued at visitor centers, ranger stations, or the Apgar Backcountry Permit Center; or in advance, in person, or by mail. There is a fee of $20 for each confirmed advance reservation and an additional per person per night fee of $4 (age 17 and over), $2 (age 9-16), and free (age 8 and under) for backcountry camping (June - September). Backcountry campgrounds have designated capacities for numbers of people and stock that cannot be exceeded. Competition is very keen at some areas for available space from July to mid-August. Stock users are encouraged to plan overnight trips after this period, when trails and campgrounds are less crowded, in better condition for horse travel, and there are fewer insects. When planning an overnight backcountry trip using stock, be aware that certain campsites are not available for stock use due to size or resource considerations; see Glacier National Park's Backcountry Guide. Overnight use in designated campgrounds is limited to one stock party per night.

Loading Ramps Area Limits

If you are using a stock truck, there are loading ramps located at the sites listed on the reverse. Check at a visitor center or ranger station for exact locations. Overnight limits for specific campgrounds may not be exceeded for day use stop-overs; however, up to eight head may be taken into areas that do not allow overnight use. Also, parties which exceed particular limits may pass through the area, but may not remain (Example: A 10-horse party may cross Brown Pass although only eight head at a time may stop at the Brown Pass Campground). An information sheet with details about parking and loading ramps for west side trailheads is available upon request.

Stock Use at Bowman Lake

Stock users may keep up to ten head of stock at the Bowman Lake Corral while they camp at Bowman Lake Campground (about 1/4 mile away). Prior permission must be obtained from the Polebridge Ranger Station (888-7842).

Noxious weed-seed free pellets and grain may be fed, but hay is prohibited.

Crossing the Border?

Special provisions and restrictions apply when crossing the International Boundary with stock. Canadian stockmen must have proof of a Coggins test, endorsed by a veterinarian. Call the Montana State Veterinarian at (406) 444-2043 for more information.

U.S. stockmen must obtain a Horse Use Permit from Carway Customs; each animal must have had a Coggins test endorsed by a veterinarian, and must enter and exit at Carway. Length of stay is 72 hours. Call (403) 653-3009 for more details.

Low Impact Stock Use

The proper use of Glacier's backcountry will prevent damage to the natural resources, maintain the aesthetic quality of the area, and avoid conflicts with other users. Please comply with the following regulations, guidelines, and Leave No Trace skills and ethics.

- Grazing of stock is not permitted. Stock users need to pack supplementary feed such as weed seed-free grain or pellets. Feed must be secured out of reach of bears using the established food hanging device or an NPS approved bear-resistant feed container which can be left on the ground in the hitchrail area.
- Transporting hay into or through Glacier National Park is prohibited, except on the portion of U.S. Highway 2 that passes through the park.
- Due to problems with noxious weeds, feeding hay at trailheads or backcountry campgrounds is prohibited.
- When not being used, pack and saddle stock must be tethered. Horses, llamas, or mules that are nervous "diggers" or "pawers" should be hobbled when tied to prevent unnecessary damage to the terrain. Please tie at least 200' from streams or lakes.

- Always use hitchracks where provided. Where there are no hitchracks, tie a rope between two trees, "a highline" away from the trail and hitch the stock to the rope. This avoids damage to the tree and trampling around the root system.
- Stock are not permitted in the camping areas of campgrounds. Load & unload at the hitchrails provided.
- Loose herding or trailing is prohibited.
- Hikers are required to stand quietly on the lower side of the trail and yield the right-of-way to stock. Many hikers do not know and understand the need for this procedure, so stock users are encouraged to courteously coach them on proper meeting procedures.
- Please stay on established trails. Cross-country riding is not permitted.
- Scatter manure after camping or stopping for long periods and smooth out any ruts or holes.
- Stock are not permitted in auto campgrounds. - In the vicinity of backcountry campgrounds allowing wood fires.
