

IGWG

Technical Update On CHILD MARRIAGE

Tuesday | July 11, 2006
1:00 to 5:00 pm

The Interagency Gender Working Group (IGWG) invites you to attend a discussion on child marriage and its negative implications for public health and human rights, including the range of child marriage practices globally, their cultural significance, and relevance to reproductive health.

Highlights to include:

- ▶ Dissemination and discussion of a DHS analysis on child marriage prevalence and predictors as well as a web-based review by ICRW of promising interventions
- ▶ Speakers from various field interventions, including:
 - ▶ BRAC (Bangladesh)
 - ▶ The Ethiopian Women Lawyers Association
 - ▶ Tostan (Senegal)

Organized by Population Reference Bureau (PRB) and the International Center for Research on Women (ICRW) for the Interagency Gender Working Group (IGWG).

National Press Club

Holeman Lounge

529 14th Street NW, 13th Floor | Washington DC 20045

Seating is limited. Please RSVP to eposter@prb.org no later than June 30, 2006.

For more details, visit www.igwg.org.

