

New Research, Program Experiences, and Applications Youth Reproductive Health and HIV Prevention

Sponsored by: Interagency Youth Working Group (IYWG)
May 7, 2007: AED Conference Center
1825 Connecticut Ave, NW, Washington, DC 20005
8:30 am – 4:00 pm, continental breakfast and lunch provided

Objectives

1. To introduce the IYWG to the USAID CA community and other organizations working on youth RH/HIV issues.
2. To present new research results and program experiences on youth RH/HIV.
3. To share ideas for applying latest knowledge and recommendations in program settings.

8:30 – 9:00 Registration and continental breakfast

9:00 – 9:30 Welcome, Introduction of IYWG and New Youth Web Sites

9:30 – 10:45 Plenary: Global and Multi-Country Experiences and Recommendations

10:45– 11:00 Break

11:00 – 12:15 Concurrent Session 1: New Research Findings and Approaches
15 min. presentations with 45 min panel/audience discussion

Option 1: Partner Reduction: New Research Findings and Implications

Option 2: New Approaches in Youth Research

12:15 – 1:30 Lunch – Roundtable Discussions, Information Marketplace, New Web Sites

1:30 – 2:45 Concurrent Session 2: Promising Programmatic Interventions Build on Research Findings
15 min. presentations with 45 min panel/audience discussion

Option 1. Early Marriage Interventions

Option 2. Scaling Up Interventions

2:45 – 4:00 Plenary: Applications and Next Steps