

Perhaps the most replicated component of the NCVRW Resource Guide is the camera-ready artwork. The artwork can be utilized in many ways during NCVRW and throughout the year. Various pieces can be used as "stand alone" documents or incorporated into publications such as brochures, annual reports, and fact sheets. They can also be copied onto overhead transparencies for use in training programs.

The 2001 Resource Guide camera-ready artwork reflects the theme of NCVRW, along with other salient issues relevant to crime and victimization. When appropriate, the artwork can be personalized with local victim service providers' contact information. Local printers and/or correctional agencies may be willing to donate printing services and/or paper, or provide these services at a reduced cost.

The ten categories of artwork include:

Public Awareness Poster, Buttons, Bookmarks, Logos, Bumper Sticker, NCVRW Letterhead, Cover/Title Page, Certificate of Appreciation, Crime Victim Resources Brochure & National Toll-free Information and Referral Telephone Numbers

- An 11 x 17 inch poster, presenting the NCVRW theme, is included in the Resource Guide. The poster can be enlarged and/or reduced for use in newsletters, brochures, and even as billboards. Victim service providers should insert their organization's contact information prior to duplicating the poster artwork.

- The artwork for buttons can be printed in one or more colors to add dimension to the message.

- Each of the bookmarks should be printed on two sides, and print best on paper that is at least 80 pound stock.

- Sample letterhead and logos can be used to encourage coalitions and/or NCVRW planning committees to show a united effort under one banner: 2001 National Crime Victims' Rights Week. Victim service providers may wish to incorporate a listing of NCVRW Planning Committee members onto the letterhead prior to reproducing it.

Logos can be used on brochures, programs, invitations, centerpieces, etc. Also, color can be easily incorporated to add more depth to the designs.

- A bumper sticker is included for reproduction and distribution to local constituencies.

- Also included is a cover or title page for your Victims' Rights Week material. Space has been left so you can incorporate the logo or name of your agency/organization.

- A certificate of appreciation is included in the Resource Guide, honoring victim service providers and others for their contributions to victim assistance. The certificate can be reproduced on attractive card stock, with the recipient's name written in calligraphy. Spaces are provided for the date of the award and the signature of the Director of the organization giving the award. You may also wish to modify the certificate to honor volunteers who assist crime victims and advocates, tying the event into National Volunteer Week, which will also be commemorated during the week of April 22-28, 2001.

- The list of national toll-free information and referral telephone numbers can be reprinted as a "stand alone" document or incorporated into other victim service organizations' publications. This list can also be utilized for training and technical assistance, especially for criminal and juvenile justice and allied professionals who are in need of good referral programs for the victims with whom they have contact.

- A crime victim resources brochure is provided as a double-sided, camera-ready, tri-fold brochure. It includes basic information about victims' rights and services nationwide, as well as a listing of national referral numbers. Space is provided for local contact information.

YOU HAVE RIGHTS

Every state has enacted laws that provide basic rights to crime victims. Over half of the states have amended their constitution to further protect the rights of crime victims. While these rights vary across the nation, most victims have the following rights:

- THE RIGHT TO INFORMATION about your case as it progresses through the justice system;
- THE RIGHT TO NOTIFICATION of many different types of justice proceedings;
- THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE in court proceedings related to the offense;
- THE RIGHT TO BE REASONABLY PROTECTED from your accused offender;
- THE RIGHT TO INFORMATION about the conviction, sentencing, imprisonment, and release of the offender; and
- THE RIGHT TO RECEIVE RESTITUTION from the offender.

IF YOU ARE A VICTIM OF CRIME, THESE RIGHTS MAY APPLY TO YOU!

Literally thousands of programs now exist to provide services, sanctuary, advocacy, and financial support to crime victims. These programs are located within both government agencies and private non-profit or charitable organizations.

YOU CAN GET HELP

America is more sensitive to the treatment of crime victims today because of the efforts of thousands of crime victims that have channeled their pain, grief and frustration into a force for positive change.

Many crime victims and survivors serve as volunteers for local victim assistance programs, join legislative advocacy and victim activist groups to work to change laws and public policy, and serve on victim impact panels to help sensitize offenders about the impact of the crime on the victim.

RESOURCES

RESOURCES AVAILABLE TO HELP YOU IN YOUR STATE AND COMMUNITY:

CRIME VICTIM COMPENSATION PROGRAMS have been established in every state to help crime victims cope with many crime related expenses such as medical costs, mental health counseling, lost wages, or funeral and burial costs. Please contact the Compensation Program in your state to find out more about this vital form of assistance.

VICTIM ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS provide many important services for crime victims including crisis support, peer support, referrals to counseling, advocacy within the justice system and, in some cases, emergency shelter. Contact the agencies and organizations listed in this brochure for further information.
