Case No. 1:96CV01285
(Judge Lamberth)

DEFENDANTS' OBJECTIONS TO THE PRETRIAL
STATEMENT SUBMISSIONS OF PLAINTIFFS

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) and Local Rule 16.5(e), Defendants hereby submit their objections to the Pretrial Statement submissions of Plaintiffs. On April 22, 2003, the parties attempted to file a Joint Pretrial Statement containing, inter alia, a witness list, exhibit list and deposition designations for each side's use at trial. When this proved unfeasible, Defendants filed a separate Pretrial Statement with attachments on April 22, 2003, and Plaintiffs moved on April 23, 2003 for leave to file their own "unilateral" Pretrial Statement. By Order of April 28, 2003, the Court granted Plaintiffs the requested leave. Although Defendants do not object to the grant of leave,¹ they do have several objections to the contents of Plaintiffs' submission.

A. Objections to Plaintiffs' Witness List

Plaintiffs' witness list does not comply with the requirements of Local Rule 16.5(b)(5).

¹ Having no objection to Plaintiff making their requested filing, Defendants will not undertake a line by line refutation of Mr. Brown's story, as set forth in his Declaration supporting Plaintiffs' motion for leave, other than to note that despite Defendants' repeated entreaties to Plaintiffs, including in writing, up to a week before the deadline to confer on the Pretrial Statement, Defendants first received a draft of Plaintiffs' text at approximately 10:55 p.m. on April 22, 2003.

This rule, in pertinent part, requires that the list "separately identify[] those whom the party expects to present and those whom the party may call if the need arises including rebuttal witnesses." Plaintiffs' witness list does not contain any such separate identification, and therefore, the list is deficient under the local rule.

Defendants brought this deficiency to Plaintiffs attention on April 24, 2003, and requested that the missing information be provided by the next evening.² Plaintiffs did provide a further annotated witness list later on Friday, but this list is also defective. On the revised list, Plaintiffs simply flagged certain witness names with a "#" symbol, which Plaintiffs describe as denoting a "witness likely to be called." See Plaintiffs' Witness List at 5 (Rev. Apr. 25, 2003) (Tab "B" hereto). This designation of "likely to be called" does not correct the problem. Defendants are entitled to know what witnesses will be called by Plaintiffs at trial and which "may" be called.

B. Objections to Plaintiffs' Exhibit List

Plaintiffs' exhibit list contains several defects, and Defendants object to the list in its entirety on the grounds set forth below. In compliance with Local Rule 16.5(e), Defendants also submit herewith all of their specific objections (except as to relevance) to each of the exhibits identified by Plaintiffs, to the extent such a determination could be reasonably made.

Defendants' specific objections are set forth on the chart annexed hereto at Tab C.

Notwithstanding the referenced objections, Defendants expressly reserve the right to object to any exhibit on grounds of relevance under Fed. R. Evid. 402 or 403 at the appropriate time. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3).

² Letter from Michael J. Quinn to Mark Brown, Esq. (April 24, 2003) (Tab "A" hereto).

Plaintiffs' general objections to Plaintiffs' exhibit list are as follows:

1. The list fails to comply with Local Rule 16.5(b)(6), which requires that the list shall "separately identify[] those which the party expects to offer and those which the party may offer if the need arises." Despite Defendants' notice to Plaintiffs concerning this deficiency in their exhibit list (see Tab A), Plaintiffs have not corrected the defect.
2. Defendants object to Plaintiffs' exhibit list on the grounds that numerous exhibit entries do not properly identify individual exhibits but multiples of separate, individual documents that should each be identified separately as exhibits. Defendants object to both the description of the such "catch all" and "placeholder" exhibits as inadequate under the rules and to offering multiple documents as one exhibit.
3. Despite multiple invitations to exchange a copy of exhibits, Plaintiffs have not done so to date. Defendants have searched their litigation files in an attempt to locate documents matching items on Plaintiffs' exhibit list. Therefore, Defendants' objections for all of Plaintiffs' exhibits are subject to amendment at any time upon discovery that an exhibit Plaintiffs' intend to offer does match the document upon which Defendants have asserted their objections. To the extent that an actual exhibit is different or until such time as Plaintiffs provide a copy of their listed exhibits, Defendants reserve the right to amend their objections for any exhibit.
4. For documents identified on Plaintiffs' exhibit list that are not presently in Defendant' possession, Defendants object to such exhibits upon all available grounds for exclusion, until such time as a copy of such exhibits have been provided to Defendants.

C. Objections to Plaintiffs' Deposition Designations

Plaintiffs have cited 17 discovery deposition transcripts in their entirety. Defendants object to this gross designation, for it is doubtful that all such testimony will be of use to the Court or relevant to the issues to be tried. The wholesale designation of entire depositions places an undue burden on Defendants to the extent it would require Defendants to assert objections to potentially hundreds of pages of testimony that Plaintiffs will never use. Defendants also anticipate that Plaintiffs will offer more specific citations to, or excerpts from, the identified depositions as the trial progresses. Defendants, therefore, expressly reserve the right to serve deposition counterdesignations and to assert line specific objections at the appropriate time. Until such time, Defendants object to such depositions in their entirety upon all available grounds for exclusion. (Defendants also incorporate by reference all objections asserted of record in the course of any listed depositions.)

To the extent an objection exists under either Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3)(A) or 32(a) that is generally applicable to an entire deposition, such objection is asserted in the accompanying table at Tab "D." Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, Defendants expressly reserve the right to assert any and all objections based on relevance, under Fed. R. Evid. 402 or 403 (including but not limited to objections such as "asked and answered," "cumulative evidence," and "narrative") as to any deposition testimony in whole or in part.

Re: Cobell et al. v. Norton et al.

Dear Mark:

I write to inquire about three matters in connection with the upcoming Pretrial Conference to be held on April 29, 2003. Although I understand you have moved, we are faxing this letter to the last telecopier number that we have for you. Unless we receive written notice from Plaintiffs instructing otherwise, we will continue to use this fax number for you and will also continue to make any hand deliveries to the address listed above.

1. Witness List. We note that Plaintiffs' witness schedule as served upon Defendants omits identification, as required by Local Rule 16.5(b)(5), of which listed witnesses Plaintiffs "Expect to Call" and those Plaintiffs "May Call" during trial. Defendants complied with this disclosure obligation in submitting their witness list, and we (and the Court) are entitled to receive the same disclosure from Plaintiffs for trial planning purposes. The omitted information must be provided immediately. If we do not receive this information by 5:00 p.m. tomorrow, April 25, we will move the Court for appropriate relief. Unless you advise us to the contrary by that time tomorrow, we will conclude that you oppose such a motion.

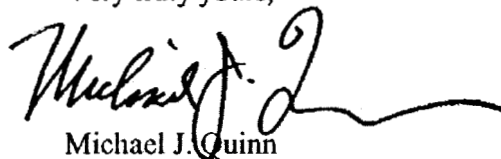

2. Exhibit List. The same deficiency exists with respect to Plaintiffs' Exhibit List. Local Rule 16.5(b)(6) expressly provides that each party is to "separately identify which [exhibits] the party expects to offer and those which the party may offer if the need arises." Defendants complied with this obligation on their exhibit list, but Plaintiffs have not. This deficiency must also be corrected immediately. If we do not receive this additional omitted information by 5:00 p.m. tomorrow, we will seek redress this problem as well as part of the motion I described above. Thus, unless you advise us to the contrary by 5:00 p.m. April 25, we will conclude that you oppose such a motion.

3. Exchange of Exhibits. Do Plaintiffs desire to exchange a copy set of their marked exhibits with Defendants in return for a marked copy set of Defendants' exhibits? I mentioned this possibility to you at least once during in the past week, but there was no resolution. We are prepared to make an exchange upon reasonable advance notice. If Plaintiffs desire to make such an exchange, please advise.

Mark Kester Brown, Esq.
