Case No. 1:96CV01285 (RCL)

UNOPPOSED MOTION BY INTERIOR DEFENDANTS
FOR ORDER ADOPTING SPECIAL MASTER-MONITOR'S
RECOMMENDATIONS REGARDING PLAINTIFFS'
PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS, AND ORDERING
PLAINTIFFS' IMMEDIATE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

The Secretary of the Interior and the Assistant Secretary - Indian Affairs ("Interior Defendants" or "Interior"), pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. ("Rule" or "Rules") 53(e)(2), hereby move that this Court enter an order adopting those portions of the October 18, 2002 Report and Recommendation of Special Master-Monitor Joseph S. Kieffer, III (the "Special Master-Monitor") that recommend denying Plaintiffs' motion to stay their obligation to produce documents, and that recommend granting Interior Defendants' motion to compel production of documents, and that this Court order Plaintiffs to produce the requested documents immediately.

In support, Interior Defendants state:

1. This motion is presented to the Court (rather than the Special Master-Monitor) because Rule 53(e)(2) provides for parties to apply "to the court for action" upon the report of a special master. This motion asks the Court to enter an order to enforce the Special Master-Monitor's October 18, 2002 recommendation that the Court grant Interior's Motion to Compel Discovery (regarding a request for the production of documents), and his recommendation that the Court deny Plaintiffs' motion for a protective order.

2. On or about June 5, 2002, Interior Defendants served upon Plaintiffs the Interior Defendants' Request for the Production of Documents, Dated June 5, 2002 ("Request for Production"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3. Plaintiffs' response was due July 8, 2002.

4. On or about July 5, 2002, Plaintiffs filed a motion for a protective order, seeking to stay their obligation to respond to the Request for Production. Plaintiffs' motion also sought to stay depositions of the Plaintiffs.

5. On July 16, 2002, Interior Defendants filed their Motion to Compel Discovery, with regard to the Request for Production. Defendants also filed their objections to Plaintiffs' motion for a protective order, and filed a separate motion to compel the deposition of Plaintiff Elouise Cobell.

6. On October 18, 2002, the Special Master Monitor issued a Report and Recommendation¹ regarding, among other things, the motions described above. The Report and Recommendation recommends granting Interior Defendants' Motion to Compel Discovery, and recommends denying Plaintiffs' motion for a protective order regarding that discovery. The

¹ The full title of the Report and Recommendation is, ""Report and Recommendation of the Special Master-Monitor on 'Motion for Protective Order Seeking: (1) Stay of Plaintiffs' Obligation to Respond to Interior Defendants' Request for the Production of Documents, Dated June 5, 2002; (2) Stay of Threatened Depositions of the Five Named Plaintiffs; (3) Stay of Rule 11 Motion With Respect to Court-Ordered Attorney's Fees (Served June 28, 2002)'; and 'Defendants' Motion to Compel Discovery' and 'Defendants' Motion to Compel Appearance and Testimony of Plaintiff Elouise Cobell at Deposition' and 'Defendants' Motion for Sanctions Regarding Submission of False or Misleading Affidavits by Plaintiffs' Attorney Dennis M. Gingold.'"

Report and Recommendation states (at 13-14), in pertinent part:

Specifically, it is recommended that the Court deny the [Plaintiffs' Motion for Protective Order] with respect to 1) a "Stay of Plaintiffs' Obligation to Respond to Interior Defendants' Request for the Production of Documents, Dated June 5, 2002," and ; 2) a "Stay of Threatened Depositions of the Five Named Plaintiffs,""

It is further recommended that this Court grant Defendants' "Motion to Compel Discovery" and defendants' "Motion to Compel Appearance and Testimony of Plaintiff Elouise Cobell at Deposition."

7. Plaintiffs filed no objection or other response to the Report and Recommendation.
8. On November 1, 2002, Interior Defendants filed their Comments and Objections to the Report and Recommendation, stating agreement with the provisions quoted above.²
9. Thereafter, by agreement, the parties scheduled the deposition of Plaintiff Elouise Cobell to begin on December 4, 2002.
10. Interior Defendants then sought to obtain Plaintiffs' compliance with the Request for Production, informing Plaintiffs' counsel that the requested documents were needed to prepare for the deposition. On November 14, 2002, Interior Defendants' counsel sent a letter (Exhibit B hereto) to Plaintiffs' counsel asking them to produce the requested documents by November 21, 2002, and to state whether they would do so. In a subsequent telephone conversation among counsel, Plaintiffs' counsel stated that he would reveal Plaintiffs' position on Monday, November 18, 2002. Plaintiffs failed to do so. Rather, Plaintiffs merely sent a letter on November 20, 2002 (Exhibit C hereto), asking when and on what basis Interior contends Plaintiffs are obliged to produce documents. Plaintiffs thus indicated their belief that they are no obligation to produce documents by the date requested.

11. Interior Defendants need the requested documents to assist in preparing for the upcoming deposition of Elouise Cobell, which begins on December 4, 2002. The Request for Production (Exhibit A) is narrow in scope, and pertains to documents that the named Plaintiffs ought to have readily at hand.

12. As revealed by the above facts, Plaintiffs are not likely to voluntarily produce the requested documents by the dates needed.

13. Therefore, because the Special Master-Monitor already recommended granting Interior's Motion to Compel production of the documents, and Plaintiffs have not objected to that recommendation, Plaintiffs should be ordered to produce the requested documents forthwith.

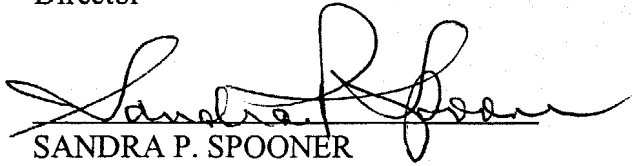

14. In a conference among counsel on November 20, 2002, counsel for Plaintiffs stated that he did not oppose the relief requested by this motion, but only opposed expedited consideration of this motion (which Interior Defendants seek in a separate motion filed herewith).

WHEREFORE, Interior Defendants request that the Court enter the attached order adopting those portions of the Special Master-Monitor's Report and Recommendation that recommend granting Interior Defendants' Motion to Compel Discovery, and that recommend denying Plaintiffs' motion for a protective order, and that this Court order Plaintiffs to produce immediately the documents called for by the Request for Production.

ORDER ADOPTING SPECIAL MASTER-MONITOR'S
RECOMMENDATIONS REGARDING PLAINTIFFS'
PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS, AND ORDERING
PLAINTIFFS' IMMEDIATE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

This matter comes before the Court on Defendants' Unopposed Motion for Order Adopting Special Master-Monitor's Recommendations Regarding Plaintiffs' Production of Documents, and Ordering Plaintiffs' Immediate Production of Documents. After considering that motion, the October 18, 2002 Report and Recommendation of the Special Master-Monitor, any responses to the foregoing, and the record of the case, the Court finds that the motion should be GRANTED.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Interior Defendants' Motion to Compel Discovery, filed July 16, 2002, is hereby GRANTED. FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs' motion for a protective order, seeking a stay of Plaintiffs' obligations with regard to Interior Defendants' Request for Production of Documents, Dated June 5, 2002, is hereby DENIED. FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs immediately shall produce to Defendants all documents requested by Interior Defendants' Request for the Production of Documents, Dated June 5, 2002.

SO ORDERED this ____ day of _____, 2002.
