Subject: USAID Expended Object Class Codes, Effective June 1, 2006

Since October 1, 2000, the Agency adopted and began using a five digit object class code to capture and report administrative cost data to the Office of Management and Budget. In order to fully comply with the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) object class coding and reporting requirements, the Agency will move to a new seven digit Expanded Object Class Code (EOCC), effective June 1, 2006. The new EOCC structure will be applicable to all Agency funding sources. Every commitment, sub-commitment, obligation and sub-obligation, regardless of fund source, will be required to be captured at the EOCC level within Phoenix.

The following web site contains background information on the the EOCC process, a help-page with frequently asked questions, an Excel file cross-walk table of USAID's object class codes to the OMB, and OPM class codes, including drop down boxes with additional information by code number, and other reference materials to assist in use of the correct codes.
