

Reengineering Best Practices No. 6

SUMMARY

Current budget and personnel limitations are requiring resources synergistic programs that contribute to more than multiplied by five. For trade patterns, reduced real national² and personal incomes, high inflation, and unraveling of the social safety net.

The republics inherited highly centralized, inefficient, and unsustainable public systems reorganized to meet the societal requirements of these new frameworks.

A common heritage, needs support a regional assistance strategy. The USAID program has always been

These include meetings with staff are in the main office safe water and are dying at abnormally high rates. The major cause is the contamination of surface and program must plan and manage activities in five countries. Routine programming

