

Archived Information

Read All About It!

Have you ever wanted to conduct interviews like the ones you read in the newspaper or see on television? Ask a friend or family member questions about him/herself, and then write an article based on the answers. Here are some suggested questions to ask:

1. What is your name?
2. What is your job? Or where do you go to school?
3. How often do you read books?
4. What is your favorite book?
5. What makes that book special?
6. Who is your favorite character in a book?
7. What makes that character special to you?

