

Special Agent Timothy Fidel

United States Environmental Protection Agency - Criminal Investigations Division

U.S. Government

End of Watch: Friday, October 29, 2004

Biographical Info

Age: 50

Tour of Duty: 24 years

Badge Number: 256

Incident Details

Cause of Death: Heart Attack following execution of Federal Search Warrant

Date of Incident: Thursday, October 28, 2004

Incident Location: Cardiff-By-The-Sea, CA

Weapon Used: Not Applicable

Suspect Info: Not Applicable

Special Agent Fidel died of a heart attack within 24 hours of executing a federal search warrant in Los Angeles, CA. SA Fidel began his law enforcement career in 1980 with the US Secret Service. He served in Washington D.C., Los Angeles and San Diego. SA Fidel was a recognized leader in the field of law enforcement computer forensics. He concluded his Secret Service career as the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of Former President Reagan's Protective Detail. He joined the US EPA Criminal Investigation Division's San Diego Resident Office in 2002. He served as a senior team leader of EPA CID's Computer Forensics Team.

He is survived by his wife and two young daughters.